Bills Approved by the Governor.

COAL MINES IN SAN DIEGO CO.

Capillary Details About the Moore-Hopkins Breach of Promise Case.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

SACRAMENTO, March 24.—The Governor to-day signed the following bills: Assembly Bill 521, known as the Irrigation Injunction Bill; Senate Bill 174, appropriating $160,000 for additional jute plant of machinery at San Quentin; Senate Bill 34, an act to pay the claim of John Roach for the construction of a steam launch for the Fish Commissioners, the Governor Stoneman; Assembly Bill 88, relating to the establishment of election precincts; Assembly Bill 124, relating to fish and game; Assembly bill 348, relative to the adoption of by-laws and respecting the election of trustees, their powers, duties and compensations in the reclamation of districts of this State. This is the last day on which the Governor can sign any bills. The following bills remain unsigned: Senate Bill 23, providing for the payment of the claim of Colonel W. B. Burtis; Senate Bill 69, an act creating a police pension in cities having a police force of 100 members; Senate Bill 304, appropriating money to the purchase of a certain road within the limits of the Yosemite grant; Senate Bill 145, amending the act to define, regulate and govern the State prisons of California; Assembly Bill 79, an act appropriating money to pay the claim of William Guttenberger, for mechanics' tools and property destroyed at the branch State Prison at Folsom; Assembly Bill 21, an act providing for the funding of certain indebtedness of several counties in the State and the issuance of bonds therefore; Assembly Bill 227, relating to the powers and duties of the Board of Directors of the State Insane Asylum at Stockton; Senate Bill 234, providing for the correction and establishment of the eastern boundary line of the State of California; Assembly bill 46 relating to the liens of mechanics and others; Assembly Bill 107, providing for the payment of Dennis Jordan for work and labor performed and utensils furnished in the construction of a branch State prison at Folsom; Senate Bill 50, to appropriate money to pay N. P. Perine for stationery furnished the insane asylum at Napa; Senate Bill 116, relating to the office of the State Printer, authorizing its Superintendent to appoint a deputy; Senate Bill 160, in relation to the donation of lands suitable for experimental vineyards and stations, and the improvement and management thereof; Senate Bill 330, an act to ascertain the loss sustained by the Centerville and Yosemite Turnpike Company; Assembly Bill 287, to provide for the organization and government of the water districts and to provide for the acquisition, control and distribution of water for irrigation; Senate Bill 264, making an appropriation for the erection of buildings and for other improvements at the State prison at San Quentin; Senate Bill 41, an act to encourage tree planting in the State of California; Assembly Bill, 354, to provide for the deficiency on appropriation for the costs of suits wherein the State is interested, for the thirty-fifth fiscal year; Assembly Bill 41, relating to roads and highways; Assembly Bill 199, relating to the forming of juries in criminal cases; Senate Bill 374, relating to the compensation of court deputies in the counties of the eighth and ninth classes; Senate Bill 437, relative to preventing the bringing into the State of persons affected with leprosy or insanity or such other persons as, by reason of their condition, are liable to become a charge upon the State, and to provide for the return of the same; Senate Bill 12; relating to indices and records of County Recorders; Senate Bill 311, to aid the Board of Commissioners to manage the Yosemite valley and Mariposa Big Trees and to appropriate money therefor.

Coal Discovered at La Jolla.

SAN DIEGO, March 24.—T. D. and J. V. Collins, of Oil City, Pa., have bought 70,000 acres of land in the Tia Juana valley, twelve miles from this city. The land lies south of the Mexican line and comprises all of the Mexican part of the valley. The purchasers propose to improve the land they have bought, land at Ensenada and considerable property in this city. Coal of good quality has been discovered at La Jolla, a resort on the seashore, fourteen miles north of San Diego. It was discovered while an artesian well was being bored at a depth of 180 feet.

SHE RUBBED HIS HAIR.

But That Was no Reason For Getting Married.

REDWOOD CITY, March 24.—In the Moore-Hopkins breach of promise suit, the defendant was placed on the witness stand to-day. He testified to knowing Mrs. Moore first in 1878, having visited her at her rooms on Market street for the purpose of finding out about the hair restorative kept for sale by Mrs. Moore. At her suggestion he permitted her to rub his head with the lotion. He went to see her at Market street and at her residence frequently; generally twice a week, and had his head rubbed. He gave her money from time to time, generally about $50 a month. He kept up these payments until Mrs. Moore or her friends asked larger sums. Mr. Hopkins denies in toto that he promised to marry Mrs. Moore, except talking nonsense. He says that the marriage proposal described by Mrs. Moore in her testimony was a mistake. The defendant denied having given Mrs. Moore $1000 in one sum previous to his marriage. The waiver of all claims by Mrs. Moore, in consideration of $8000, was read and admitted in evidence. The defendant rested his case. In rebuttal the plaintiff was placed on the stand. In regard to the renunciation paper, she denied having, of her knowledge, executed that instrument. Both sides then closed. The arguments will be made to-morrow.

Cattle Killed.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 24.—The west-bound freight on the Southern Pacific was thrown from the track this morning near Colton. Nearly all of three cars of cattle were killed. Trains are delayed.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.

Schuyler Ford and His $700 Lost Sight Of.

HARRISBURG, Ogn., March 24.—Schuyler Ford, a young man 21 years of age, and a stepson of Peter H. Wigle, of Harrisburg, disappeared from this vicinity about a month ago. Nothing has been heard of him since. He had purchased a lot in Coburg, upon which he had built a house to run as a saloon, for which business he had bargained of J. H. Butler, of this place, for a stock of goods. When last seen he had upon his person $700 in money, and Albany bank checks. His pistol and overcoat remain at the hotel uncalled for. His friends entertain fears that he has been murdered for his money. Notwithstanding diligent inquiry and search no trace of the missing young man has been found.

A BASELESS CANARD.

Two Men Reported Murdered Who Are Very Much Alive.

BENSON, March 24.—The reported murder of the Duncan brothers, at their ranch in the Huachuca mountains, proves to be a canard. Coroner Koska and C. D. Reppy have returned, stating that the Duncan brothers are full of life, and expressed surprise when told they were thought to be dead. Deputy Sheriff McLane announces that the information on which the telegram to the Sheriff was based was received from two cattlemen, Vaughan and Crane, who make the statement that they had received their news from a courier en route to Forte Huachuca.

J. MARION BROOKS.

The President Reappoints the Eagle-eyed Legal Luminary.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—J. Marion Brooks, who failed of confirmation as United States District Attorney for the Southern District of California, was yesterday reappointed by the President to that place. Brooks is now on his way to his home in San Buenaventura. His reappointment is due to strong representations on his behalf made by Senators Stanford and Hearst, and Representative Felton, assisted by Judge Field.

The Escondido Bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—The Board of Bank Commissioners have issued a license to the Bank of Escondido, San Diego county, to commence business on the 1st of April, 1887. The authorized capital is $100,000, the subscribed capital $100,000 and the paid up capital $10,000. The officers are as follows: President, W. W. Thomas; Vice-President, P. A. Graham; Cashier, J. H. Anderson; Directors, W. W. Thomas, P. A. Graham, A. K. Cravath, C. C. Watson, J. Gruendike, R. A. Thomas and H. Anderson.

The Crew and Passengers of the Raiatea Safe.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—A cablegram was received here to-day, dated Auckland, New Zealand, from T. C. Johnson, who was a passenger on the German steamer Raiatea, reported burned at sea The dispatch says that the vessel and cargo were lost. No particulars are given. From this it is inferred that all the others, numbering twenty-one, who were aboard the lost steamer, are safe with Mr. Johnson.

A Heavy Liability.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—In the suits brought by the State against Wm. Blanding and Wm. Knight, ex-Harbor Commissioners, to recover moneys misappropriated by John S. Gray, ex-Secretary of the Harbor Committee, and other employés, Judge Hunt decided to-day that the defendants are liable for the amounts misappropriated. The defalcations amount to over $100,000.

Identified as a Penitentiary Bird.

MARYSVILLE, March 24.—George Tuscan, the young man who robbed the Comptonville stage, has been identified by J. B. Hume, Wells, Fargo & Co's detective, as C. H. Addison, who served two years in San Quentin for an assault on a man in Sierra county. Certain marks on his face identified him as the man who robbed the Nevada stage a short time ago.

He was too Sensitive.

ROSEBURG, Or., March 24.—James Aden, a young man, aged 20, living 15 miles from Glendale, in this county, suicided to-day by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. The reason given was that his mother is lying low and is not expected to live, and he could not bear to survive her. Before he committed the act he dressed in his best clothes and shaved himself.

The Santa Barbara Boom Continues.

SANTA BARBARA, March 24.—The Santa Barbara Hot Sulphur Springs, with 380 acres, have been sold to a syndicate of Eastern and San Francisco capitalists for $100,000. It is intended to build a hotel for the accommodation of a thousand guests.

The Fatal Oil Stove.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 24.—George W. Spiers, an invalid, residing with a family named Leeden, in the foothills on the road to Arrowhead Springs, was burned to death this morning. He kept an oil stove burning all night, and is supposed to have upset it. The house and all its contents were destroyed.

The Locating Party.

SACRAMENTO, March 24.—The Commission to select a location for the Northern California Normal School will not leave here until to-morrow. The time of leaving was postponed to accommodate the Governor, who goes with the locating party.

The Goldenson Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—The taking of testimony in the Goldenson murder trial was completed this afternoon, and arguments begin to-morrow.

Fairchild Wins the Race.

NEW YORK, March 24.—A Washington special to the Post says Secretary Fairchild has been informed by the President that he is to be Secretary of the Treasury after April 1st.

Harrison Accepts.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Mayor Harrison has reconsidered his declination of the Democratic nomination for Mayor, and announces that he will make the race.

Fined for Selling "Oily."

NEW YORK, March 24.—Jacob Peterson, a grocer of this city, was fined $100 to-day for selling oleomargarine unlawfully.

EASTERN.

The Inter-State Commerce Commissioners

FLOODS REPORTED IN THE EAST

Attempted Lynching of a Dissolute Painter who had Left his Family.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The President to-day signed the commissions of the Inter-State Commerce Commissioners, but they will be held at the White House and delivered to the new appointees upon their arrival. Information was received to-day that Judge Cooley cannot reach Washington until the close of next week, so it was decided to make no effort to get the Commissioners to meet here before that time, as the other members also have private affairs to wind up. When the Commission assembles its first action will be to organize and begin the official consideration and interpretation of the important provisions of the law. The candidates for the position of Secretary are numerous, and each Commissioner probably has a favorite for the position.

DISMAL PROSPECTS.

Floods and Icegorges Devastating Several Places.

BISMARCK, Dak., March 24.—The water fell two feet yesterday, but it is rising again to-day. The water in Washburn is ten feet above the high water mark of 1881, while here it is not quite up to that record. This shows a gorge between here and Washburn, and when that then feet of water comes it, will make the flood supass any previous records. There is a prospect for the Heart River to break about the time the upper gorge breaks, and if it does Mandan will be afloat. The steamer Tompkins, which was crushed in the ice near Bowie to-day, was the property of the Evans Transportation Co., and its ruin just as the navigation is opening is a heavy loss. The Northern Pacific shops at Mandan are still flooded.

FARGUS FALLS, Minn., March 24.—The Red river rose rapidly last night and this morning was higher than ever known. The cause of the rise is not known as ice is still running solid. The water is running over the banks and cutting the channel between Wright's Bee Hive and Castle Tower. Men are at work protecting the dams.

RED FALLS, Minn., March 24.—An immense ice gorge a mile wide and six miles long is coming this way, sixteen miles westward on Redwood river.

A MORAL CROWD

Try to Beat a Painter to Death Because He Was Immoral.

CHAMBERSBURG, March 24.—The town was thrown into great excitement over the attempt of lynching last night, which was not known until to-day. Frank Guyer, a painter, it is alleged, forsook his wife and children to take up his residence with another woman. Last night a man called him out. Instantly a crowd of masked men surrounded him and commenced to beat him. After pounding him they asked him to promise to return to his wife. When he refused, they informed him that they would tar and feather him and hang him from the railroad bridge. They started in that direction with him. Guyer fought hard, and finally succeeded in making his escape, seriously injured, to the house. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the deed.

SHERMAN'S SPEECH.

The Ex-Senator Discourses on State's Rights.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 24.—A very large audience listened to a speech to-night delivered by Senator Sherman on the invitation of the Republican members of the Legislature of Tennessee. Sherman said he accepted the invitation, believing that a fair representation made to the people of Tennessee, without distinction of party, of aims and principles of party, both in the past and for the future, might induce them to join with us in a public policy that will contribute to the interests of the people of Tennessee and of the whole country, more and greater benefits and advantages than can possibly be conferred upon them by the Democratic party." I have felt that the differences that grew out of the war now hold a large body of honest and patriotic citizens of the South from co-operating with the Republican party, which, in my judgment, is in sympathy with us. I thought that perhaps I might be able to dissipate these prejudices by a frank statement of the views which have actuated the Republican party in the past, and thus bring us into co-operation in measures tending to the advance of the common interests and prosperity of our country. At all events I feel confident that the people of Tennessee, who from the very earliest settlement have been distinguished by their courage and independence, will give a stranger among them a fair hearing for his honest opinion." After dwelling upon the lessons of his political life, Sherman said the State rights, as distinguished from the national authority, has been the disturbing element in American politics, so the people at large, both state and nation, are convenient agencies for the exercise of distinct and separate powers for the common good. To the individual citizens they are guardians of distinct and separate rights and privileges, for which we owe allegiance and duty. They are no hostile spheres, but, like planets moving in the great harmony of the universe, in friendly co-operation. But it is the people, the whole people and nothing but the people that is the governing and paramount power of our system. This, at least, is the theory I have been taught and if any of you, reared in a different school, have inherited feelings of jealousy and suspicion of the federal authorities and of especial reverence for that of the State of Tennessee, you may find in this the germ of the controversy, fought out in the war. If I understand the principles of the Republican party, I would say they are embraced in the trinity of Union, Constitution and Country; the preservation of the Union, the maintenance of the full powers of the Constitution, and the growth, prosperity and grandeur of our country in all its parts, as it is now or is to be. These ideas we inherit from the wisest statesmen in American history, and now, since they have been reaffirmed by war, there is nothing to divide American citizens by sectional lines but prejudice and passion." The speaker then devoted himself to other controversies, which finally led to the war of the rebellion and to the features of the strife relating to Tennessee. "When the war was over," Sherman said, "the people of the north heartily approved of the generous terms granted by General Grant to General Lee and the Confederate troops, and wished that the people of the south should be restored to all their rights and privileges, subject only to such conditions as honor and good faith seemed to demand, arising out of the proclamation of President Lincoln for the emancipation of slaves. Both sides felt that the abolition of slavery was the necessary result of the war and it seemed to us that if the slaves were to be free they must be armed with the privileges of freemen, and these were secured to them by constitutional amendments. The attempt to force these rights by the national authorities have thus far partially failed and now it is considered, under limitations of the constitution, that the rights of a citizen of a State can only be enforced through the State or national tribunals, and when public opinion is intolerant and voters will not do their duties as citizens, either white or black may be without remedy for the grossest wrong, except the right to migrate to where his rights will be respected. Our constitutions are based upon the idea that such denial of rights is impossible and I trust that the time is not far distant when the people of every State will feel it to be both just and expedient that every citizen of the State shall be protected in the free and equal enjoyment of every right and privilege conferred by the Constitution of the United States. The Republican party is pledged to this policy; and, though it will use no unconstitutional means to secure its rights, it would be false to its principles if it did not use all its moral and legal power to that end. No wrong can be done to the humblest citizen and no right withheld without reacting upon the community at large. I was glad to hear, in passing through several of the Southern States, conservative citizens say that public sentiment now revolts at the unlawful methods to defraud the free exercise of equal rights of citizens, that have been adopted in several States, and are still practiced in what is known as the black counties of the South. So long as such methods are resorted to there will be the keen sense of wrong and injustice to the injured parties, and those who practice such offenses will, in the end, suffer for it. Sectional feeling will continue to exist as long as large masses of people, whether rich or poor, white or black, are denied their rights to share in self-government, but there is another ground upon which I prefer to base my appeal to the South for justice and fair play to the African race. It was recently stated in debate by Senator Vest, of Missouri, that when our wives and children were in their hands during the war, they acted so as to make every man in the South their friends, who had one particle of manhood about him. If this be so, as all history attests, then we may appeal to the manly spirit of our own race, to protect these free men from the lawless injustice and cruelty of all those of our race, who may hereafter seek to deprive them of their plain constitutional rights, either by open force or by taking advantage of their ignorance. If the kindly spirit, started by Senator Vest, is manifested, the color line will gradually fade away in the dim horizon from American politics and we can then look only to the safety, development and power of one great and united country."

After touching on the financial problem, he said: "One of the great objects of the formation of government was to secure such improvements for commerce; all great cities of the country think that all rivers and harbors are unimportant, except their own, and yet the commerce of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers is much greater in quantity and value than the commerce with the United States and foreign nations." In conclusion he said: "No portion of the public expenditure is more prolific of benefit, or is more carefully disbursed, than that expended by the engineer corps in their improvement of our rivers and harbors. If President Cleveland had ever been west of Buffalo, he would never have pocketed the River and Harbor bill. I believe that it is a wise public policy to erect suitable public buildings to carry on the business of the country wherever the amount of business will justify such an expenditure."

Senator Sherman, in closing, eulogized the Republican party at length, referring to the clamorous cry of the Democrats in 1884, about the "time for a change," and denied that they had accomplished or attempted any important reform.

GONE TO BRAZIL.

James Hunter, of Philadelphia, Gone to a Better Clime.

PHILADELPHIA, March 24.—The liabilities of the firm of James and John Hunter, so far as discovered, amount to $194,000. All the compromising paper of the firm bears the name of James Long, President of the Union Trust Company. Long says he does not know how much paper his name has been forged to, but the forged paper has been estimated as high as the three-fourths of the entire amount of ascertained liabilities. In addition to the amount mentioned there is supposed to be a large amount of paper still afloat, which bears only the firm name. The rumor that James Hunter took the steamer for Brazil yesterday gained ground this morning, as nothing has been heard from him since Tuesday, when he left the city, ostensibly for New York.

President Rammell, of the Mechanics' National Bank, says his bank has notes from James and John Hunter, bearing James Long's name to the aggregate of $60,000, but Long has not yet been able to decide which were the true or which the forged signatures. All he could tell was that he had memoranda in his bill book of all the Hunter paper he has on Long secured by a mortgage of $100,000. "I don't know whether James Hunter can or not, but I am pretty sure he will commit suicide. I don't think he has the moral courage to come back and face the music. The theory is that when certain notes matured James Hunter first resorted to the desperate scheme of forging James Long's signature. This he kept up, it is supposed, for years. A guess at the assets and liabilities is made as follows: Assets Wynnewood farm $200,000, Conestoga mills $100,000, Norristown mills $50,000, John Hunter's residence $25,000, James Hunter's residence $8,000. Total $383,000. Liabilities: Notes upon which suit has began $156,000, paper taken up out of the Merchant's bank $20,000; paper taken up out of the Keystone National Bank, $15,000; two mortgages on Wynnewood farm, $140,000; mortgage on Conestoga mills, $100,000; mortgage on Norristown mills, $25,000; mortgage held by John Maguire, $60,000. Total, $576,100.

VERONA BALDWIN.

She Flees from the Johnson Mansion.

HER DOOR LOCKED.

She Escaped through a Window and was Reported to be Abducted.

As announced in the HERALD yesterday morning Major Bell obtained an order to take the testimony of Verona Baldwin before a notary public, and although this interesting event will not take place for almost a week, the Major evidently intends that he will not lose sight of Miss Baldwin until it has been effected. Yesterday morning early it was discovered that Verona was not in her room in the Johnson Mansion, and as the door was locked and the screen of the window down it was surmised that she had either been abducted or had fled. Consequently the Major did not rest easy until he was informed of her whereabouts. A representative of the HERALD hearing the wild rumors which were floating about learned that she had returned to her room at the Johnson Mansion and called upon her for the purpose of hearing what she had to say on the subject.

When he arrived Miss Baldwin was in the garden cultivating the flowers, but she cheerfully consented to tell all about the fears which beset her on the night previous. She stated that she had gone to her room, which is on the lower floor of the house, adjoining the parlors, early in the evening and had entertained Mrs. Perkins. Shortly after 9 o'clock Mrs. Perkins left her and after a few moments she attempted to leave the room but to her surprise found the door would not open. She could see no key on the inside of the door and that impressed her as being still more strange. She then applied her eye to the keyhole and saw the key in the lock and also observed that it had been turned on the outside of the door. After her past treatment she could not help being suspicious and she thought at once that either some one had locked her there for no good purpose or else that some parties were trying to gain possession of her to take her to the Insane Asylum. She had seen two men sitting on the piazza talking about E J. Baldwin and had heard one say to the other that some man passing the Pico House was Baldwin, and immediately her fright was greater, thinking that her imprisonment was due to his agents.

When she found the door was locked she called out several times, but receiving no answer went to the window and pushing the screen out crawled to the ground and went to the back door, which was also locked. She called again, this time for admittance to the house, but no one coming or answering, she went down to Main street, where she saw a policeman, and after telling him that some one had locked her in her room, she visited the office of Mr. Lucas, a private detective and friend of her family in Oregon. She told him that she had been locked in her room and that she would not go back, but wanted him to engage a room where she could stay without being subjected to such treatment. Mr. Lucas took her to the St. Elmo Hotel, where she obtained a room for her, registering her as Mrs. Clark, so that no one would know that Verona Baldwin was there, in case the register should be inspected. Yesterday morning she awoke late, owing to having been kept awake by music in the hotel, and she saw in the morning papers that she was to be a witness for Major Bell. She then went to a restaurant and took breakfast, and was on her way to the Major's office when he was met by Charles Bell.

Verona said she had always considered Mrs. Perkins her friend, and she did not know why she should have locked her door, but Mrs. Perkins had explained that she had not knowingly locked the door, and she believed her. She was not afraid of being murdered or killed, but she would not go to the insane asylum again, when she knew she was not insane, and she would do all in her power to give relief to the unfortunates who were confined in the asylum. She had not been insane when she was sent to the asylum, and she knew there were others who were not insane, but are kept there and treated in a horrible way.

Mrs. Perkins said that she left the room and had no recollection of locking the door. It was probable, however, that she had locked the door instinctively, the key being on the outside, but she was a friend to Verona and would do nothing to injure or alarm her.

Under Sheriff Mitchell was notified yesterday morning that something was wrong with Miss Baldwin, that she had been abducted or had disappeared, and he visited the Johnson Mansion and examined the premises. He found the screen down, and also noticed marks of Miss Baldwin's skirts and boots on the window-sill and on the ground below. Without knowing the circumstances, Mr. Mitchell supposed something had happened to her, and was about to employ the forces of his office to search for her, when he was notified that she had been found.

When Major Bell received word yesterday morning that Verona was missing he hurried to the scene of the alleged abduction and made an examination of the premises. He then went to the police station, where he related his fears and his suspicions.

The Major was certain that she had been abducted or carried off and murdered, but after her return to her room he was seen on the street and explained the matter in an entirely different manner, which changed the aspect of affairs.

He said that she had not been feeling well and had taken some medicine. She had retired and left the key on the outside of the door and the servant in passing through the hall had seen the key in the door, and supposing she was out turned it. The medicine operated and Miss Verona arose, and not being able to open the door in her haste, and not desiring to awaken the house, went to the back of the house, using the window as a means of exit. Afterwards she had not been able to get back through the window and not desiring to disturb the people of the house, had taken a walk down town and had taken a room elsewhere. She slept late and the fact of her not being in her room was considered as suspicious. Taken altogether the matter was either of very little moment or else there was something underneath which has not yet transpired and which may possibly be developed at the taking of her testimony.

"BOCCACCIO."

The Pyke Company in Suppe's Picturesque Opera.

The house was very well filled at the Grand last night to hear the favorites of the Pyke Opera Company in Suppe's sonorous and picturesque Buccaccio. The cast embraced Miss Jeannie Winston in the title role; Miss Tellula Evans as "Beatrice;" Louis de Lange as "Lambertuccio," and Miss Louisa Manfred as "Fiametta."

Miss Winston and Miss Manfred sang charmingly in all the solos and duets assigned them in the pretty music of this favorite opera. In the song

"Love is a Tender Flower,"

These two young ladies were specially sweet in execution and manner.

Miss Evans had not so much to do as in the operas in which she has heretofore appeared. The passages assigned her she did well.

De Lange made a new hit as the grocer, and also in his topical song,

"I hope it won't happen again."

Boccacio will be repeated on Saturday night by the desire of a large number of the play goers who frequent the Grand. For to-night Prince Methusalem is the attraction, and for the matinee to-morrow afternoon The Oath of Love is under-cored.

Before closing one wishes to refer to the acceptable manner in which Mr. W. H. West took the part of the cooper, winning emphatic approbation from all parts of the house; and Mr. Clark as the barber manifested a decided talent for comic business.

The setting and dressing of the piece are good.

THE SMALLPOX.

Four Negroes Found With the Disease.

Health Officer Hagan reports that he found four negroes down with smallpox at 334 Buena Vista street yesterday. These cases will be removed to a tent on the hospital grounds as soon as matrasses are furnished them. This is the sum total of cases discovered yesterday. Quarantine has been raised from 356 Center street, 21 Pennsylvania avenue, 570 Buena Vista street, and the brickyard. It will be raised on Saturday from 621 Hill street, where the patient has recovered. All the Americans in the hospital are well, except Wm. Pulliam, who is getting along remarkably well. There are five Mexicans sick in the hospital. County Recorder Gibson, who has been quarantined in the hills, was yesterday taken back to his house, it being thoroughly proven that he did not have the smallpox. His disease consists of nervous exhaustion and an eruption caused by indigestion. Miss Cook is nearly well and has not been ill of anything approaching smallpox.

The San Dimas Boom.

The new settlement of San Dimas is going with a rush like the town of Monrovia. The settlement is about ten days old, and three surveyors are at work staking out the lots, which are sold ahead of the carriers of the theodolite and the street tapeline. A lumber yard is there in advance of the railway. A two-story brick building is going up for a hardware store; H. W. Mills is erecting a two-story building 20x40 feet for mercantile purposes; M. L. Wicks, Esq., is building a mercantile building 25x60 feet, while the M. E. Church South has secured a lot and over $1500 in subscriptions for a church edifice, which will be erected at once. It is probably an open secret that Mr. Wicks generously gave $1000 of the funds subscribed for the church. A school lot has also been reserved for a public school, and water pipes are being laid all through the settlement. The cars will be running to the San Dimas settlement next week from San Bernardino, which is distant about thirty-six miles. San Dimas is twenty-five miles east of Los Angeles, on the new Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway, which will be completed in about ten days. The whole high mesa is alive with activity from Pasadena to Cucamonga.

Incorporated.

The Glendora Land Company was incorporated yesterday. It is a real estate and building association which will do business at Glendora, in this county. The capital stock is $100,000, fully subscribed, and the principal shareholder, George D. Whitcomb, holds $85,100 thereof.

Fell Through a Bridge.

LYNCHBURG, Va., March 24.—A train on the Norfolk and Western railroad went through the Otter river bridge, twenty miles above this city, to-night It is stated that eight persons were killed. Particulars cannot be obtained. A wrecking train with physicians has gone to the scene of the disastor.

This morning's freight train went through the bridge nine miles from Liberty, on the Norfolk and Western Railroad. The bridge is in process of repairs. Eight or nine workmen were killed and several others wounded. None of them are train hands as far as known. The engine and several cars crossed safely before the structure gave way.

A Family Catastrophe.

NEWARK, O., March 24.—Jacob Bread died last night from the effects of a scalding received at the hands of his wife, Sunday evening. The couple frequently had trouble, and on this occasion, becoming exasperated at some abuse by her husband, Mrs. Bread threw a pan of boiling water in his face. She kept everybody out of the house after scalding him, but since his death she has become a raving maniac.

The Atchison Pool.

BOSTON, March 24.—It is claimed that the pool which has taken the Atchison railroad in hand is one of the strongest ever formed here, and will put the stock up to 120 if they have to purchase 500,000 shares. It is hinted that the stockholders will, on the next declaration of dividends, receive them on a 7 per cent. basis. The street is extremely bullish on this stock.

Reduction in Freight Rates.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—The revision of west-bound freight rates, for posting on April 1st when the Inter-State Commerce law enters into effect, shows a reduction of from 50 to 42½ cents per 100 pounds between this city and Chicago. Other classes are reduced two and one-half cents. The reduction was unexpected by shippers.

VIOLENT ATTACK ON BALFOUR.

A French War Official Dismissed. Three Hundred Chinese Tramps Burned.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The steamship Scotia, which left Marseilles February 20th, Naples on the 23d, and passed Gibraltar on the 27th for New York, is now about ten days overdue. At Naples she took on board 834 passengers from the steamship Burgundia, which had collided with the iron-clad Italia and was beached to prevent her sinking, making her total number of passengers about 1000. Apprehensions for her safety have been excited. The steamer Hesperian, of the Anchor line, from the Mediterranean ports, also passed Gibraltar February 27th, but as she is a less powerful vessel, she is not so long overdue.

BALFOUR ATTACKED

For Interfering With the Privileges of Priesthood.

DUBLIN, March 24.—The United Ireland, Small's organ, publishes a letter containing an attack on Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland. It calls him "bloody Balfour, with a tiger's heart in a woman's hide," and says he has entered lightly into the struggle with the Catholic church, and that in such struggles the proudest despots have been humbled into the dust. Prince Bismarck, swaying the destinies of Europe, in his whole career but once learned the bitterness of defeat and that was when he laid his hands on the church, which resents sacriligious handling of the sacred privileges of priesthood.

Suspected and Dismissed.

PARIS, March 24.—Perald, an official in the French war office, has been dismissed on suspicion that he has been supplying secrets of the department to foreigners.

THE TRAMP QUESTION.

The Expeditious Way to Dispose of them Adopted in China.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—The steamer Belgic arrived to-day from China and Japan. She brought news of a dreadful tragedy at Hsia Shih Chen, China, twenty miles northeast of Hangebow. Over 300 tramps appeared at the village and greatly irritated the inhabitants. The villagers inveigled the whole body into a temple and during the night set fire to it. Only thirteen occupants of the building escaped. The remainder were burned to death.

It is reported that the Chinese government has concluded a loan of five million marks with German financiers at five and a half per cent.

It is stated that the Bank of Japan will increase its capital from ten million to twenty million yen, which coin is about equal to one dollar.

BISMARCK'S WORDS.

The Year 1887 to be a Year of Peace.

BERLIN, March 24.—In the Reichstag three motions were introduced by the Conservatives and Centreists in favor of the reestablishment of trade corporations. The matter was referred to a committee. The Emperor and Empress continue well. The Empress spent the morning exchanging visits with the Queen of Roumania and Saxony and others. A musical soiree was given this evening at the palace, at which 260 guests, including the Prince of Wales, were present. Visitors are gradually leaving and the city is assuming the usual aspect. Tagblatt says Bismarck's precise words at the recent banquet were: "Peace is completely assured. The year 1887 will be a year of peace. There is no cause for anxiety in the east or in the west."

Big Haul By Nihilists.

LONDON, March 23.—Major-General Knock, commander at Warsaw, is dead. The current rumor is that he was murdered.

An Astrakan band of Nihilists made an underground passage to the postoffice, which they entered and robbed of letters to the value of $120,000.

JUST POWDERLY.

He Refuses to Allow Assessments for Political Purposes.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Two weeks ago the District Assembly, Knights of Labor of which Robert Nelson, the candidate of the labor party for Mayor, is a member, voted $50 to the United Labor Party out of the general fund. In answer to a protest of another Assembly the following letter is received:

PHILADELAHIA, March 20, 1887.

Secretary Local Assembly No. 400—An appeal of Local Assembly No. 400 was laid before the General Executive Board, and my decision is to the effect that the action taken by District Assembly No. 24 in voting $50 to the United Labor party, or any other party, was clearly in violation of the law and the established precedent. It was unanimously approved by a majority of the Board. No money can be voted from the Assembly, district or local, for political purposes. The members of the Board present when my decision was acted upon were all of my mind; they were Bayley, Barry, Aylesworth, Hayes and Carleton. General Worthy Foreman Griffiths was present also. Local Assembly 400 will pay no assessments for political purposes. With the kindest regard I remain fraternally yours.

T. V. POWDERLY,
General Master Workman.

The District Assembly, of which Nelson is Master Workman, has a membership of about 25,000, including, presumably, men of all parties. At present the entire machinery of the district organization is in the hands of a radical faction, composed of the friends of Nelson. The immediate effect of the ruling is to prevent Nelson's supporters from levying assessments upon his political antagonists or using the organization as a political collection agency.

DAILY HERALD.

THE CONTEST.

A Synopsis of Mr. G. W. Burton's Testimony.

Thursday Mr. Burton was the most important witness at the Lynch-Vandever contest. This gentleman edited the HERALD during the campaign and was in a position to know most everything that went on in political circles.

Mr. George W. Burton testified as follows: In October, 1886, I was editing the HERALD and was acquainted with all that was being done during the campaign. Notices were published that registration would close on October 2d. No notice was given of the continuance. Wrote article after article urging Democrats to register before October 2d. From Dunsmoor and his deputies we had instructions to that effect—that the Great Register would close—not that registration would close, but that the Great Register would close. Our way of doing was to urge Democratic voters through the columns of the HERALD to register before that date; that otherwise they could not vote. And that went broadcast. It was put in little paragraphs and scattered all through the paper, duplicated and triplicated and put in ten times over, urging this. And we never had any instructions from anybody to contradict these previously made statements to the effect that registration had been extended. We never had any instructions to that effect, and the paper never, to my knowledge, gave it. I know my own impression in my own mind was that you could not vote unless you had been registered, until late in October, probably about the 20th of October. It was about the 20th that I knew registration was continued and there would be a supplemental Register.

We first got the knowledge through the Brierly circular on October 21st.

Mr. W. S. Waters, the Secretary of the Democratic County Central Committee, and Major W. R. Burke, another member of that same committee, came up to the HERALD office, and they had an article written referring with some considerable emphasis to the action of County Clerk Dunsmoor in this matter of registration that we have been speaking of.

They brought this article and wanted it published in the HERALD as editorial. I objected, because I didn't see that it proved that the County Clerk was a party to this matter in any way, shape or manner. We had a good deal of heated discussion about it, myself and the two members of the Democratic Central Committee. I published it, but not as editorial. The next day I found a placard tacked up in the Clerk's office saying that registration would close on October 2d. I then found that the Brierly circular and the County Clerk's circular extending registration had been sent to Republican deputy clerks and not to deputy assessors and not to deputy Democratic deputy clerks. I think Slack, of San Gabriel, was one of the Democratic deputy clerks that it was not sent to, but I would not be sure. I asked several of them on the streets, and they said they never got this circular. I then published, contrary to all my desires and previous impressions, the whole facts connecting Mr. Dunsmoor as I thought with an attempt to steal a march on the Democrats in registering voters. It seemed to me a plain case that it was a concocted scheme on their part. Well, I published the whole thing, contrary to my own wishes and feelings and desires, after my mind was overcome by what seemed very competent evidence, that I have given here now.

Witness told many persons after the 2d of October that it was too late to register and vote at the coming election. "I was at the White House precinct on the day of election and found a long string in line and voting proceeding very slowly. There were many people challenged and thrown out. It was frequent to hear a man challenged who, as soon as challenged, would turn around and walk away. It took from forty-one to forty-seven minutes for a man to vote. I frequently heard men say: "Well, I can't wait to vote, it takes too long."

Witness also spoke of the gerrymandering of the Second Ward by the Republican Board of Supervisors. "I think it was done for the purpose of shutting out Democratic voters."

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

The witness was asked: "You exhibit in this examination a good deal of interest for Mr. Lynch, don't you?" and answered: "Yes, sir, because I think he was cheated out of his election by these schemes. I naturally feel a good deal of interest in him; I am a Democrat."

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge whether there were any persons employed by the Democratic Executive Committee to stand there and induce voters to vote the Democratic ticket and to peddle tickets.

A. No, I do not; I do not.

Q. You don't know it of your own knowledge, do you?

A. I don't know it at all. I know nothing about it. My politics are clean.

Q. Well, of course I don't wish to charge you with anything.

A. I have nothing to do with any improper methods in politics.

Q. You can hear those things without your having a hand in it.

A. You asked me if I knew. What I have heard, I have heard that this was so, but everybody I ever heard it from was a Republican. Every individual that I ever heard make this charge was a Republican, or intimated anything about it. I never heard a Democrat open his lips in reference to that matter —not one.

Taking of testimony will be resumed at 10 o'clock to morrow morning.

THE NEW ENGINE.

The Trial Yesterday Was Not Very Satisfactory.

The trial of the new fire-engine, J. Kuhrts, yesterday afternoon, was not very satisfactory. In the first place it took over 8 minutes to get up steam, but it is claimed that it was not the fault of the engine but occurred through the choking of the fire by too much coaloil. The trial occurred on the corner of Main and Requena streets, and was watched with great interest by the City Council, the Mayor, the Police force and the Fire Department. Two lines of hose were deposited on Requena street, and at the corner of Los Angeles the nozzles were attached. There was not enough water to allow of a good test with two streams and while they played the force was not very great, neither stream being sent much over fifty feet. Frequently during this trial the water in the mains gave out and the engine's pumping apparatus whizzed at a rapid rate. A short trial with only one stream was given but the water was not sent to a much greater distance and the hose was taken up.

This afternoon there will be an official test of the new engine at the old Beaudry water works, on Alameda street. This will decide whether the engine will be accepted or not.

Pers[illegible] whose blood is thin, digestion wea[illegible] and liver sluggish, are extra-liable to attacks of malarial disease. The most [illegible]ting exposure may, under such conditions, infect a system which, if healthy, would resist the miasmatic taint. The only way to secure immunity from malaria in localities where it is prevalent is to tone and regulate the system by improving weakened digestion, enriching the blood and giving a wholesome impetus to biliary secretion. These results are accomplished by nothing so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which long experience has proved to be the most reliable safeguard against fever and ague and kindred disorders, as well as the best remedy for them. The Bitters are, moreover, an excellent invigorant of the organs of urination, and an active depurent, eliminating from the blood those acrid impurities which originate rheumatic ailments.

Ayer's Hair Vigor stimulates the hair cells to healthy action, and promotes a vigorous growth. It contains all that can be supplied to make the natural hair beautiful and abundant; keeps the scalp free from dandruff, prevents the hair from becoming dry and harsh, and makes it flexible and glossy.

Unnecessary Misery.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. PROCLAMATION!

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1887.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of California, at its twenty-seventh session, beginning on the third day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, proposed the following described amendments to the Constitution of the State of California, to wit:

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

To propose to the people of the State an amendment to the Constitution of the State, relative to the Judiciary Department.

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session, commencing on the third day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that sections two and three of article VI, of the Constitution of said State be amended to read as follows:

Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of seven Justices. The Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, in office at the time of the adoption of this amendment to the Constitution are hereby continued in office as Justices of the Supreme Court for the remainder of the terms to which they were respectively elected. The Justices shall elect one of their number to be Chief Justice, and he shall hold the office of Chief Justice of said court for a term of two years. At the expiration of the term of the Chief Justice first elected, and every two years thereafter the Justices shall elect a Chief Justice for a like term of two years. An entry of the election of such Chief Justice shall be made in the minutes of the court and signed by four Justices. Whenever thereafter a vacancy occurs in the office of Chief Justice, a like election shall be had to fill such office for the unexpired term. The Supreme Court may sit in departments and in bank, and shall always be open for the transaction of business. There shall be two departments, denominated, respectively, Department One and Department Two. The Chief Justice shall assign three of the Justices to each department, and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time. The Justices shall be competent to sit in either department, and may interchange with each other by agreement among themselves or as ordered by the Chief Justice. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in relation to the Court in bank. The presence of three Justices shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of two Justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment. The Chief Justice shall apportion the business to the departments and may, in his discretion, order any cause pending before the Court to be heard and decided by the Court in bank. The order may be made before or after judgment pronounced by a department; but where a cause has been allotted to one of the departments, and a judgment pronounced thereon, the order must be made within thirty days after such judgment and concurred in by two Justices, and if so made it shall have the effect to vacate and set aside the judgment. Any four Justices may, either before or after judgment by a department, order a case to be heard in bank. If the order be not made within the time above limited, the judgment shall be final. No judgment by a department shall become final until the expiration of the period of thirty days aforesaid, unless approved by the Chief Justice, in writing, with the concurrence of two Justices. The Chief Justice may convene the Court in bank at any time, and shall be the presiding Justice of the Court when so convened. The concurrence of four Justices present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment in bank; but if four Justices, so present, do not concur in a judgment, then all the Justices qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument; but to render a judgment a concurrence of four Judges shall be necessary. In the determination of causes all decisions of the Court in bank, or in departments, shall be given in writing and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The Chief Justice may sit in either department, and shall preside when so sitting, but the Justices assigned to each department shall select one of their number as presiding Justice. In case of the absence of the Chief Justice from the place at which the court is held, or his inability to act, the Associate Justices shall select one of their own number to perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chief Justice during such absence or inability to act. The Supreme Court Commission, created by the act of the Legislature, approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, shall continue and be a Supreme Court Commission for four years after the adoption of this amendment. Said commission may be continued for such time thereafter as may be fixed by an act passed by a vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each House of the Legislature, and approved by the Governor. The members thereof and Secretary shall be appointed as in said act provided; and such commissioners shall be subject to removal in like manner as the Judges of the Supreme Court. Said commission shall have the same power to hear and determine causes possessed by a department of the Supreme Court, and causes may be assigned to the commission in the same manner they are assigned to a department, and after decision they may be ordered heard in bank in the same way, and with like restrictions as if decided in department. The judgments of the commission shall be entered as the judgments of the court. The commission shall sit at such times and places as may be designated by the court, but such commissioners shall not exercise any judicial functions except when assembled as a commission, and then they shall only have power to hear and determine such causes as may have been assigned to them.

Section 3. The Justices of the Supreme Court shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State at large, at the general State elections and the times and places at which State officers are elected; and the term of office shall be twelve years from and after the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding their election. Three Justices shall be elected for the full term at the general State election held in eighteen hundred and ninety; and at the general election held every fourth year thereafter, two Justices shall be elected for full terms of twelve years, except that in every twelfth year thereafter, three Justices shall be elected for full terms. If the Chief Justice, or any Justice, becomes permanently disqualified, either mentally or physically, to perform the duties of his office, and such fact is certified to the Governor by five Justices, one of whom may be the Chief Justice in case of the disability of a Justice, the office of such disqualified person becomes immediately vacant, and he shall be paid a retiring salary of two hundred and fifty (250) dollars per month for the remainder of his term. If a vacancy exist or occur in the office of a Justice, the Governor shall appoint a person to hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term. The Governor shall appoint a Justice to hold office as Justice for the unexpired term of the late Chief Justice.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

To propose to the people of the State an amendment to the Constitution of the State, relative to the salaries of the Judiciary Department.

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session, commencing on the third day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that section seventeen, of Article VI, of the Constitution of said State, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 17. The Justices of the Supreme Court, and Judges of the Superior Court, shall severally, at stated times during their continuance in office, receive for their services, compensation which shall not be increased or diminished after their election, nor during the term for which they shall have been elected. The salary of the Justices of the Supreme Court shall be paid by the State. One-half of the salary of each Superior Court Judge shall be paid by the State; the other half thereof shall be paid by the county for which he is elected. The annual salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court shall be seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7500) each, and the Supreme Court Commissioners six thousand dollars ($6000) each. Until otherwise changed by the Legislature, the Superior Court Judges shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars each, payable monthly, except the Judges of the city and county of San Francisco, and the counties of Alameda, Los Angeles, Santa Clara, Yuba and Sutter combined, Sacramento, Butte, Nevada, San Diego, San Bernardino, Co usa and Tehama, who shall receive five thousand dollars, and the Judges of the counties of Tulare, Monterey, Sonoma and San Joaquin shall receive four thousand dollars each.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

A Resolution to propose an amendment to section eight, of Article XI, of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to the framing of a charter for cities of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and for cities of over ten thousand and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants.

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session, commencing on the third day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that section eight, of Article XI, of the Constitution of said State, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 8. Any city containing a population of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this State, by causing a Board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified voters of such city, at any general or special election, whose duty it shall be, within ninety days after such election, to prepare and propose a charter for such city, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of such Board, or a majority of them, and returned, one copy thereof to the Mayor, or other chief executive officer of such city, and the other to the Recorder of Deeds of the county. Such proposed charter shall then be published in two daily papers of general circulation in such city, for at least twenty days; and within not less than thirty days after such publication it shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such city, at a general or special election, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereat shall ratify the same, it shall thereafter be submitted to the Legislature for its approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment; and if approved by a majority vote of the members elected to each House, it shall become the charter of such city, or if such city be consolidated with a county, then of such city and county, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, and all amendments thereof, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. A copy of such charter, certified by the Mayor, or chief executive officer, and authenticated by the seal of such city, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall be made in duplicate, and deposited, one in the office of the Secretary of State, the other, after being recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the county, among the archives of the city. All Courts shall take judicial notice thereof. The charter so ratified may be amended at intervals of not less than two years, by proposals therefor, submitted by legislative authority of the city to the qualified voters thereof, at a general or special election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals, and ratified by at least three-fifths of the qualified electors voting thereat, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of the charter. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. Any city containing a population of more than ten thousand and not more than one hundred thousand inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this State, by causing a Board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified voters of said city, at any general or special election, whose duty it shall be, within ninety days after such election, to prepare and propose a charter for such city, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of such Board, or a majority of them, and returned, one copy thereof to the Mayor, or other chief executive of said city, and the other to the Recorder of the county. Such proposed charter shall then be published in two daily papers of general circulation in such city, for at least twenty days; and the first publication shall be made within twenty days after the completion of the charter; and within not less than thirty days after such publication it shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city, at a general or special election, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereat shall ratify the same, it shall thereafter be submitted to the Legislature for its approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment; and if approved by a majority vote of the members elected to each House, it shall become the charter of such city and the organic law thereof, and shall supersede any existing charter, and any amendments thereof, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. A copy of such charter, certified by the Mayor, or chief executive officer, and authenticated by the seal of such city, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall be made in duplicate, and deposited, one in the office of the Secretary of State, and the other, after being recorded in said Recorder's office, shall be deposited in the archives of the city; and thereafter all Courts shall take judicial notice of said charter. The charter so ratified may be amended, at intervals of not less than two years, by proposals therefor, submitted by the legislative authority of the city to the qualified electors thereof, at a general or special election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals and ratified by at least three-fifths of the qualified electors voting thereat, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of the charter. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Now, therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution, and an Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act to provide for the submission of certain proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State, hereinafter named, and which have been proposed and adopted by the Legislature of the State of California, at the session beginning on January third, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, to the qualified voters of said State, at a special election to be called by the Governor for the twelfth day of April, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven," approved March 15th, 1887, the said amendments are submitted to be separately voted upon, by ballot, by the qualified electors of the State, on TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1887.

The said amendments are respectively designated:
"Amendment Number One."
"Amendment Number Two."
"Amendment Number Three."

And will, if adopted, be respectively designated amendments numbers four, five and six, in the order of their submission: and the ballots used at such election must contain the words:
"For the Amendment Number One."
"For the Amendment Number Two."
"For the Amendment Number Three."
Or the words;
"Against the Amendment Number One."
"Against the Amendment Number Two."
"Against the Amendment Number Three."
Written or printed thereon.

And the Boards of Supervisors of each of the respective counties of the State are hereby directed to appoint officers of election and cause the polls to be opened, by proclamation, on said

TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1887,

At each of the election precincts of their respective counties, pursuant to the statutes of the State in such case made and provided; said election to be conducted, and the returns thereof duly certified to the Secretary of State, at the State Capitol, Sacramento, in like manner as is provided by law in the election of State officers (other than Governor and Lieutenant-Governor).

And I do hereby offer a reward of one hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any of the provisions of Title IV, Part I, of the Penal Code; such rewards to be paid until the total amount expended hereafter for the purpose reaches the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the State, the day and year first written.

WASHINGTON BARTLETT,
[SEAL] Governor.
Attest: WM. C. HENDRICKS,
Secretary of State.
By H. B. DAVIDSON, Deputy. m18td

The Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county hereby give notice, pursuant to the proclamation of the Governor of the State of California, that an election will be held throughout Los Angeles county on Tuesday, the 12th Day of April, 1887.

The polls must be opened one hour after sunrise on the morning of the day of election, and must be kept open until sunset of that day, when the same must be closed, at which election the qualified electors throughout the county of Los Angeles are to vote on the following propositions, viz:

The amendments to the Constitution, which are respectively designated
"Amendment Number One."
"Amendment Number Two."
"Amendment Number Three."

And it is hereby ordered that the polls be opened for the purpose set forth in the foregoing proclamation at the places herein named, and the following named persons are hereby appointed inspectors and judges of said election, viz:

Notice of Foreclosure Sale No. 5273.

JOSEFA A. DE CELIS ET AL, PLAINtiffs, vs. Geo. K. Porter et al, defendants—Sheriff's sale under decree of foreclosure.

Under and by virtue of an execution issued out of the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles on the 2d day of March, A. D. 1887, upon a decree of foreclosure of a mortgage in the above entitled action, in which said action a decree was rendered and entered on the 16th day of May, 1884, against George K. Porter et al, for the foreclosure of a mortgage for the sum of $7724 44, and upon which there was paid on the 16th day of May, 1884, the sum of $5948.32, leaving a balance due of $1776 12, with interest from said date at 7 per cent. per annum, I am commanded to sell all the right, title and interest which the said George K. Porter had on the 14th day of June, 1876, or which he has since acquired in that certain tract of land in the county of Los Angeles, State of California, and being that portion of the Rancho Ex-Mission San Fernando, described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at the point where the south line of section twenty-nine (29), township two (2) north range fourteen (14) west San Bernardino meridian, intersects the east boundary line of said rancho; thence north 8° west three hundred and forty-two (342) chains to station number three (3) of final survey of said rancho as made by the Government of the United States and shown by the patent of said rancho; thence south 81° west ten and fifty-hundred hs (10 50-100) chains to station number four (4) of said survey; thence north 82½° west twenty-one and fifty-hundredths (21 50-100) chains to station number (5) of said survey; thence north 74½° west sixty-four (64) chains to station number six (6) of said survey; thence south 82½° west forty-nine 50-100 (49 50-100) chains to station number seven (7) of said survey; thence north 41° west twenty-two 50-100 (22 50-100) chains to station number eight (8) of said survey; thence north 20° west twelve (12) chains to station number nine (9) of said survey; thence north three (3) degrees west fifty-three 50-100 (53 50-100) chains to station number ten (10) of said survey; thence north 50° east six (6) chains to station number eleven (11) of said survey; thence north 16½° east one hundred and five (105) chains to station number twelve (12); thence north 66° west (80) eighty chains to station number thirteen (13) of said survey; thence south 86° west two hundred and seventy-six (276) chains to station fourteen (14) of said survey; thence north 54½° west one hundred and thirty-two (132) chains to station number fifteen (15) of said survey; Thence south 47¾° west, twenty (20) chains to the point where the said last line of the boundary of said rancho intersects the easterly line of the lands of the right of way of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company through said rancho. Thence following said easterly line of said right of way until the same intersects the south line of section twenty-nine (29), township three (3) north, range fifteen (15) west, San Bernardino meridian. Thence south on the section line three (3) miles to section corner 10-11-14-15, township two (2) north, range fifteen (15) west, San Bernardino meridian. Thence west one mile to section corner 9-10-16-15, township two (2) north, range fifteen (15) west, San Bernardino meridian. Thence south three (3) miles to section corner 28-27-33-34. Thence east on the section line four (4) miles and sixty (60) chains to the place of beginning, containing sixteen thousand and five hundred (16,500) acres, a little more or less, excluding therefrom the right of way of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company through said tract, the same being a portion of the lands described in the mortgage foreclosed in this action.

Public notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 5th day of April, A. D. 1887, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, in front of the Courthouse door of the County of Los Angeles, on Spring street, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States

Dated this 9th day of March, 1887.

JAMES C KAYS,
Sheriff of Los Angeles County.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT BILL.

Some Important Changes Introduced by Senator White.

The new County Government bill which passed the last Legislature and was signed by the Governor will become a law in about fifty days. It contains many important changes, among which are the following advocated by Senator S. M. White:

13. Justices of the Peace, such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law; provided, that no Justice of the Peace shall receive more than one thousand dollars per annum for all services rendered by him in criminal cases, or in actions or proceedings in which the people of the State of California are or may be parties; and no claim of any such Justice of the Peace in excess of the sum last named shall be allowed or paid, but all fees collected by such Juctice on the account aforesaid in excess of one thousand dollars shall belong to and be the property of the county in which such Justice exercises his jurisdiction.

14. Constables, such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law; provided, that no Constable shall receive more than $1000 per annum for all services rendered by him in criminal cases, or in actions or proceedings to which the people of the State of California are or may be parties; and no claim of any such Constable in excess of the sum last named shall be allowed or paid, but all fees collected by such Constable on the account aforesaid in excess of $1000 shall belong to and be the property of the county in which such Constable acts.

15. Supervisors, $5 per diem and mileage.

16. The County Clerk shall charge and collect the fees and charges which he is now authorized by law to charge and collect, except that said Clerk shall charge and collect the sum of 10 cents, (now 25 cents), and no more, for the filing of each paper or document filed by him or in his office, and shall charge and collect for all transcription, recording and copying done by him or in his office for which the County Clerk is now authorized or empowered to collect fees or make charges, 10 cents, (now 20 cents), and no more, per folio of 100 words. All fees and charges received or collected by such County Clerk shall belong to and be the property of the county and paid into the treasury thereof. The County Recorder shall charge and collect the fees and charges which he is now authorized by law to charge and collect, except that he shall charge and collect at the rate of ten cents, and no more, per folio of one hundred words, for all documents and papers or other matter recorded by him or in his office, and shall charge and collect ten cents, and no more, for the filing of each document or paper filed by him or in his office. All fees and charges received or collected by such Recorder shall belong to and be the property of the county, and paid into the County Treasury thereof.

211. In any county in this State where the number of Judges of the Superior Court shall have been increased since the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, or shall hereafter be increased, the Board of Supervisors of such county shall allow the Sheriff thereof one additional deputy for each additional Judge elected or appointed, because of such increase in the number of Judges; and said Board shall also allow the Clerk of such county one deputy for each additional Judge appointed, because of such increase in the number of Judges. In counties where two additional Judges shall have been or may be appointed under any law increasing the number of Judges, passed since January first, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, the Clerk shall also be allowed an additional Deputy Clerk to act as Register Clerk. The compensation to be paid all Deputy Clerks appointed hereunder shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, and such compensation shall be paid monthly, in the same manner that other county officers are paid. The compensation to be paid Deputy Sheriffs appointed hereunder shall be five (5) dollars for each day's actual attendance upon the Superior Court, which compensation shall be paid by the county, monthly, in the same manner that other county officers are paid. Whenever the salary or compensation of any officer is increased or diminished by the terms of this Act, the provisions hereof so increasing or diminishing such salary or compensation shall not apply to or affect present incumbents, unless where otherwise in this Act expressly stated.

Railway Progress.

The graders of the Los Angeles and San Gabriel Valley railway and those of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway are now in sight of each other and will probably be able to meet to-day and unite the roadbed from Los Angeles to San Bernardino. The steel rails for completing the track are on the ground and a cargo of ties arriving to-day will enable the Los Angeles and San Gabriel Valley railway to carry its track through Azusa to San Dimas. Mr. Davis, the constructing engineer, is pushing the work with might and main and that is all that need to be said of this accomplished and enthusiastic engineer.

A contract has been let by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Company to Mr. Burlingame to grade its track from the present terminus of the Los Angeles and San Gabriel Valley railway at Mission street, along the west bank of the Los Angeles river to First street.

A signal tower, the finest in the State, is to be erected at the Mission street crossing of the Southern Pacific and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe in this city. Mr. Johnson, the agent and constructor of the Pittsburg Automatic Electric Signal Company, is in the city to erect a two-story signal tower at that place. The edifice will have fourteen feet stories, with the lower story occupied by the electric machine and the upper story by the men in charge. This signal machine will warn of an approaching train at a distance of half a mile and hoist signals at a height of about forty feet. With this most excellent signal tower a collision of trains where a hundred are passing every day will be impossible. The cost of the outfit will be $5000.

Woman's Suffrage.

The Woman's Suffrage Club held one of its interesting fortnightly meetings in the parlor of the Hollenbeck on Tuesday at 3 P. M.

Their numbers seem to be increasing, and long deferred hopes revivified by the signs of the times.

After despatch of necessary business, Mrs. Hoyt read some pertinent clippings from friendly journals, showing how the cause has gained advocates in that department of education. After that, selections from some of the ringing speeches by earnest women, delivered before the Select Committee on Woman Suffrage, United States Senate, and published in the Congressional Record, were read by Dr. Varney and Miss Marshall. Some discussion followed, after which the meeting adjourned to April 5th, at same place and hour.

All interested are invited to be present, whether they become identified as active members or not.

Cure for Piles.

PILES are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by E. F. Heinzeman.

Abietene Ointment.

ABIETENE is produced in the northern part of Butte county, Cal., and combining with it Vaseline and other Therapeutic agents, we challenge the world to produce anything to equal ABIETENE OINTMENT for old sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Corns, Chilblains, Fever Sores, Chapped Hands, Cancers, Burns, Ring Worms, Bleeding, Blind, Itching and Ulcerated Piles and all eruptions of the Skin. Price 25 cents. Sold by C. F. Heinzeman.

Soothes and Heals

The combination of Abietine Balsam and Mountain Balm in Santa Abie soothes and heals the membrane of the lungs, inflamed and poisoned by disease. It prevents night sweats and tightness across the chest, cures coughs, croup, asthma, phthisic, pneumonia, hoarseness, loss of voice, and allied complaints. Use as directed; if the effect desired is not produced, money will be refunded by C. H. Hance.

The Secret of Beauty.

To prevent roughness and wrinkles of the skin, remove freckles, sallowness and other cutaneous defects, Camelline stands supreme. A single application, requiring but a moment's time, proves it. The testimony of the most eminent physicians accompany each bottle. Camelline, price 50 cents.

The Original

Abitine Ointment is put up in two ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, ulcers, burns, wounds, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for the Original Abietine Ointment, in two ounce boxes. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Preuss & Hance, Druggists, 77 and 79 N. Spring street.

TAKE SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.

This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.

No loss of time, no interruption or stoppage of business while taking the Regulator.

Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.

If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system. A·Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—

"Medical science has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so great value as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.

PROPOSALS

United States Government Building Site.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL Revenue, Los Angeles, California, March 18, 1887.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon on the 18th day of April, 1887, for the sale of property suitable as a site for a public building, authorized to be erected in this city.

The dimensions of the lot should approximate, if a corner lot, not less than one hundred and fifty (150) by one hundred and ten feet (110); if not a corner lot, the dimensions should be not less than one hundred and ninety (190) by one hundred and ten feet (110), the one hundred and ninety feet (190) to be street frontage. If alleys abut on either side, the width of such alleys can be deducted from the above dimensions. Buildings on property selected to be retained and removed by the owner. The Department reserves the right to reject all proposals.

Proposals to be marked "Proposals for sale of property for a site for a Public Building to be erected at Los Angeles, California," and addressed to E. D. Gibson, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, 108 North Main street, room 4. m19eod14t

They Will Tolerate No Trifling.

One of the most interesting regions of the American continent is just now being made the subject of a very searching inquiry and investigation which look to investment and settlement. We refer to the San Joaquin valley where, a few years ago, land was a drug upon the market, and where even such men as Miller & Lux ten years since were looked upon as "land poor." Beginning with the superb four hundred and forty thousand-acre farm of the Messrs. Haggin & Carr, in Kern county, and reaching up to the banks of the sluggish San Joaquin river, that whole section is responsive to a new life. The myriads who are rushing into Southern California do not all settle in Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego counties, and the overflow of this mighty immigration is pouring into Kern, Tulare and Fresno counties. Particularly in the two last named counties has the movement of population and investment been noted, and perhaps Fresno county has had the cream of the influx thus far. This preference ought to excite no surprise. In richness of soil and in the vast expanse of her arable lands Fresno county is surpassed by no county in the State. The Sierras there attain their utmost grandeur. With an average elevation quite Alpine in its magnitude, and running up, we think, to quite thirteen thousand feet, there are in this range peaks like Mt. Whitney that attain the first dignity in the mountainous line, challenging comparison with Mounts Shasta and Hood. On the summits and in the recesses of these prodigious ranges lie the snows which are the fountains of the San Joaquin and Kings rivers, which supply inexhaustible facilities for irrigating a soil wich is as rich as that of the valley of the Nile. Canals of tremendous magnitude, like the Seventy-six, the Centerville and Kingsburgh and the Gould, percolate through these rich, chocolate colored lands. Wherever they go they insure wealth and progress. On twenty acres of these exceptionally endowed lands an industrious man can get rich, and he and his family are at the same time engaged in employments which in all ages of the world's history have been looked upon as positively poetical. The raisin grape in Fresno county, in the fourth year, yields a return of from one hundred and seventy-five to two hundred dollars to the acre. Under such circumstances "Ten Acres Enough," the caption of an Eastern book, become a reality rather than a fiction.

And yet there is a drawback to this roseate picture. This fair valley is overshadowed by the grim specter of the land grabber, who is ready to float a grant from Monterey over into Fresno county. Sixty-three thousand acres of the richest land on the footstool are comparatively powerless for good under the shadow of one of these fraudulent grants. Nor is that all, by any means. There are found to be men bold enough to dispute the right of the horticulturist and farmer to the waters which flow through the ditches which his labor has constructed—men who, by injunction and other processes of law, would arrest the tide of improvement and production that would soon make, under an intelligent system, Fresno county blossom as the rose. This determination upon the part of a limited number of grant owners has naturally excited a high degree of indignation in Fresno county. Thus far it has only taken the mild form of ducking the myrmidons of these gentry in the ditches which they have sought to close, thus condemning the raisin and wine vineyardists to poverty and ruin. Resistance to such a non-productive and re-actionary programme will not long be restricted to such harmless methods. If the provocation continues, without doubt Fresno county will be the scene of outbreaks which, while not defensible under the law, will commend themselves, to most people, as having much of the element of peremptory and unsparing natural justice. There is at last an end to the patience of a long suffering people.

The Legislature, appreciating the grievances under which the people of Fresno county have so long suffered, at its late session enacted a modification of the California law of injunction, which enables the farmers, on giving bonds for all possible damages, to obtain the advantages of the waters flowing in the ditches which their own labor and enterprise have constructed. Though the grant claimant were Lambro himself he ought not to object to a solution of the controversy so equitable as this. It is to be hoped that Governor Bartlett will sign this bill. If it fails to receive his sign manual there is trouble—perhaps blood—ahead for the fair land of Fresno.

Acclaim to a Good Man.

The whole world is aflame to-day with the pæans which are being rung out to the good name and fame of the nonagenarian Emperor of the German people. In many respects this ovation is unique. In the first place, forty years ago, there was no more detested man in all the German Fatherland than the present German Kaiser. He rode over the fiery liberal element of 1848 like a mailed knight of the Middle Ages. His amiable brother, who had nothing of the iron autocrat about him, like George the Third of England, lived so long that the Emperor Wilhelm seemed only to enter upon the crown as the prelude to the grave. Yet it is a singular circumstance that the greatest of the German Emperors, like the greatest of the Popes, entered upon his exalted function at a time when most men are supposed to be anxious to take refuge in the private station. Gregory the great, facile princeps of the Roman Pontiffs, entered upon the duties of his Pontificate in his eighty-fourth year. The great Emperor Wilhelm had not attained to this venerable age when he ascended the throne of Prussia. Step by step, that great central European power had made its way from the matrix so laboriously prepared for by Frederick the Great. When Wilhelm ascended the throne of the Hohenzollerns the German Empire had no existence. The great Napoleon had blotted out the Holy Roman Empire, and nothing Germanic had been fabricated to succeed it. The two decades which succeeded the dividing line of the nineteenth century had been fecund in great men, and noticeable amongst them all was the Count Cavour, who, through the co-operation of the Emperor Napoleon the Third, created the Kingdom of Italy, and the Bismarck—the "mad Bismarck" of his early days—the Prince of Blood and Iron of his later—who prepared the way for a successor to the old Holy Roman Empire in the person of the existing and virile German Empire of to-day.

No wonder that the nations of the earth hail the aged Emperor Wilhelm on his ninetieth birth-day. In his person he personifies the Frederick Barbarossa—the sleeping power of the great German races. Coming to kingly and imperial station at a late day, his great pride and ambition is to be at once the exemplar of German unity and a guarantor of the peace of the world. Americans, who care nothing for kingcraft or for the traditions of empire, recognize in this genial and matchless sovereign—for we are all sovereigns here—that one touch of nature which makes the whole world kin. And one and all the American people toast the splendid Kaiser in the refrain made immortal by Irving's Rip Van Winkle, and which ran, "Here's to your good health and to that of your family. May you live long and prosper."

ELSEWHERE our telegraphhic dispatches state that President Cleveland has re-appointed Hon. J. Marion Brooks as United States District Attorney for the Southern District of California. This action of the Executive will meet with the approbation of most Democrats of Southern California. Mr. Brooks was not our original choice for the position, but we have never sympathized with the personal and indefensible fight which has been made against him. All the indications are that he will prove to be a competent and worthy official.

DAILY HERALD.

A CONFEDERATE BILL.

Mrs. Francis Changes it Over her Counter.

Yesserday afternoon Mrs. Francis, who keeps the Quaker restaurant on Temple street was victimized to the amount of fifty dollars by some one whom it is likely will not be caught. It appears that a stranger whom she had never seen before, after eating a meal, walked leisurely up to the counter, pulled out what purported to be a $50 greenback and handed it to her for payment of his meal. She demurred to receiving so large a bill, and pushing it back towards him on the counter asked him if he had nothing smaller. He said no, and remarked that she had plenty of change in the drawer. She then gave him $4975 change, and without paying particular attention to him she turned and waited on other customers. Later in the afternoon she looked at the bill and found it was a confederate bill and not worth the paper it is printed on. She immediately notified the police, but owing to the vague description she gave of the man it is doubtful whether she will ever regain what she lost. The man, to the best of her recollection, was attired in a gray suit with a black hat. He was about five feet nine or ten inches, and was heavy-set. That was about all she could remember of his appearance.

Criminalities.

Yesterday afternoon B. Bassett, C. J. Kerbach and John Ludwin were convicted for violating the ordinance regarding the hitching of horses. This ordinance will be carried out strictly hereafter, and all parties leaving horses unhitched will be fined. This action is taken for the purpose of preventing runaways, which have been frequent.

The five Chinese arrested for violating the laundry ordinance, which prohibits washing or ironing after 10 o'clock at night, were fined $2 each by Justice Austin yesterday.

C. Patterson, J. Mascarel and Lizzie Lopez, the parties caught smoking opium, obtained a continuance of their cases yesterday, and will plead to-day.

The charge of disturbing the peace against A. Metz was dismissed by Justice Austin yesterday, and the prosecuting witness, Antonio Sylvester, was ordered to pay the costs of the case, owing to his malicious prosecution. It appeared that Sylvester is married to a sister of Metz, and they live with Mrs. Metz, the mother of the brother and sister. The testimony showed that Sylvester had been making himself disagreeable to the family, and had insulted Mrs. Metz twice. For this Metz called him some hard names, which the Judge did not think caused a disturbance of the peace.

A. Greenwald was arrested and fined $25 yesterday, for selling liquors to minors.

Some time ago it was reported that a watch and $35 in money had been taken from a room in a lodging house on Fort street, and yesterday Christine Wilson took a watch to the Police Office and stated that a man had given it to her to sell for $2 Officers Lynch and Lemon made arrangements to be on hand when the party came for his money. Yesterday evening they captured a man named B. McCray, whom they charged with larceny for the theft of the watch.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

A Review of the Day's Transactions.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The bullish feeling was more pronounced, with a greater degree of animation than has been shown for over a week past. The market was firm at the opening but extremely dull and uninteresting. Prices were firm and strong and few of specialists became prominent for strength. Toward noon there was more activity but no decided movement in anything. Later, usually active stocks showed more animation, and coal stocks and grangers became particularly strong and active. Some hesitation was shown toward 2 P. M. but the close was moderately active and strong, about the best prices of the day. Government bonds were dull and steady.

Financial.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Three per cent Government bonds, 100⅝; four per cent. coupons, 128⅛; four and a half per cent coupons, 129; Central Pacific, 38; Kansas & Texas, 31⅛; Northern Pacific, 27¾; preferred, 59; Northwestern, 118⅜; New York Central, 112⅛; Oregon Navigation, 99; Transcontinental, 31⅛; Improvement, 38⅛; Pacific Mail, 56; Texas Pacific, 29; Union Pacific, 57⅞; United States Express, 62; Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, 127; Western Union Telegraph, 76¼.

Money on call easy, at 4@5½ per cent; closed, offered 4½.

Prime mercantile paper, 5@6.

Sterling exchange quiet, firm; $4.85 for sixty day bills; $4.87½ demand.

Bar silver, 97½c.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Closing quotations for stocks to-day are as follows:

Corn—Weaker; cash, 38⅛c per bushel; May, 39⅜c; June, 34½

Barley—Steady at 50½c per bushel.

Chicago Fruit Market.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The receipts of California oranges are on the increase this week, and a considerable quantity of the fruit is choice and fancy stock. Choice fresh and sound fruit has a good demand and is selling at enormous prices. Old common and frosted stock is disappearing from this market, which is a favorable feature. Choice grades of oranges find quick sales, while the more common grades are handled by peddlers, who sell them at very low prices. Commission men look for better prices and an increased demand as soon as the old fruit is disposed of. The following are the range of prices: Seedlings, $2 5 @$3.25; Navels, $2 00@$6.00; Bloods, $5 per box.

Chicago Meat Market.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Pork—Higher; cash, $20.80 per barrel; May and June, $21.

Petroleum.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Petroleum was dull Opened at 62¾; highest, 63¼; lowest, 62⅝; closed at 63⅛. Sales, 857,000 barrels.

Dr. Pierce's Electric Belt!

DR. PIERCE'S
TRADE-MARK

The Grandest Electro-Medical Appliance of the Nineteenth Century.

IT POSITIVELY RELIEVES AND CURES, without medicine, all diseases and weaknesses of male or female that can possibly be relieved or cured by Electricity and Magnetism. Dr. Pierce's Belt is the only one which will produce electricity with or without acids; giving when charged a current of high tension, which can be instantly felt by the wearer. Contains all the latest improvements, including an improved ELECTRIC SUSPENSORY FOR MEN. Also special attachment for Ladies' Belts.

The following short extracts, which are taken from the recent letters, are but samples of scores of others which are constantly arriving at our San Francisco and St. Louis offices:

"Life Renewer."

It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge that it has been of great and lasting benefit to me I recommend it wherever I go as a most excellent life renewer.
E. A. WOODRUFF, Fort Canby, W. T.

No More Physic.

I swallowed bottle after bottle of medicine, but instead of doing me good, I actually believe it did me harm. I kept getting worse until I obtained Dr. Pierce's Belt. That was the "medicine" for me. I consider it the most wonderful remedy ever discovered, and will advise all who are ailing to give it a trial.
J. N. NORTON,
New Westminster, B. C.

From a Lady.

Having worn one of your Electro-Magnetic Belts I have derived untold benefit from its use. * * * I have often wished the real value of your Belt could be known and understood, for the benefit of those who are suffering as I have. No one could have been more faithless than I was when the Belt was recommended to me. Rev. Dr. J. T. Willis and wife, now of Aurora, N. Y., will confirm the truth of what I say to you, for they know how very much I have been benefited.

DAILY HERALD.

HOW IT FELT.

By a Man Who Has Had the Disease.

A gentleman of this city, who had the smallpox in 1876, gives the following as his experience:

As the dread spectre of smallpox has appeared in our midst in a mild form, it might not be amiss to give a brief account of the experience of a victim to the disease. Literature concerning smallpox or any other foul or epidemic disease is not generally sought for, and is not pleasant reading at any time; but the presence of smallpox here amongst us is the only excuse for the present article.

In the centennial year of 1876 there was smallpox in the city of Los Angeles, and there was no mistaking the quality, it being very distinct from anything appearing here now.

The writer was engaged in a calling during the months while the disease was raging, which occupied nearly all of each night, and in common with everybody was well supplied with "certain preventatives" to carry in the pockets or wear upon the person. All during the day one Saturday the writer had a feeling of lassitude which made work very laborious; this feeling was intensified as the night hours dragged along. Towards morning it required an effort to stand up, and the walk homeward was a painful effort. It seemed as though a tremendous heavy weight was strapped around the waist, bearing the victim down to the earth, and it required the utmost effort to walk at all. This feeling was accompanied with a dizziness. Sunday was a day of feverish unrest, with the same feelings all day. Next morning an effort was made to arise, but strength failed and the dizziness returned. A high fever soon set in and complete prostration ensued Copious doses of cream of tartar and water were taken during the day and at night a hot bath was given to relieve, if possible, the excruciating pains which was affecting the head and back. This was partaken of freely. A physician was called in and some slight prescription made, but the same general treatment was continued. The fever increased violently on the second day, and the pains spoken of became most intense, extending to every portion of the body, increasing in intensity every hour. At times the fever produced unconsciousness, but the horrors of the dreams while in that state afforded questionable relief. This continued, with slight variations, for the succeeding twenty four hours; then hot applications and drinks gave the most relief. Up to this juncture, and to the morning of the fifth day, there was nothing to indicate what disease the victim was suffering with, as to distinguish it from the usual severe fever The pain increased until it became exceedingly agonizing, which can only be described as though a person had been placed on the rack and every bone, muscle and nerve torn violently out and the joints from their sockets.

On the morning of the fifth day the first symptoms began to develop by the appearance of purple spots on the back of the hands and forehead and minute blisters in the roof of the mouth, which caused a feeling much the same as that left by chewing a wild turnip or biting a chestnut burr. A breaking out then followed very rapidly, stimulated by warm drinks, continuing for about forty-eight hours, and until the whole body was thickly covered with blisters or postules, especially the head and face. When the breaking out was complete the pains began to lessen, and after a short period left altogether. The pains left in a peculiar way; first leaving the head and body and passing into the arms and limbs, and thence out at the extremities, but contested every portion of the way. For instance, the slightest touch on the forearm or hand was like a thrust from a two-edged knife, while the upper arm could be handled quite rougaly; the same with the limbs. The relief given by the departure of the pain reconciled the victim to the odious features of the disease in the breaking out. The face was a horrible mass, without using stronger words to describe it, but the victim's eyes were swollen so as to be entirely closed, so he can only speak of appearances when returning sight made the revelation.

All the usual remedies prescribed in smallpox cases were employed. A big placard on the house, yellow flag and a policeman at the gate for a day or two, a few other incidentals having been provided for the family by kind neighbors who had not become panic stricken. The other members of the family remained on their own premises, not desiring to to come in contact with any one and so communicate the disease; were vaccinated early, when the character of the disease was manifested; received explicit directions as to themselves and caring for the victim; were charged above all things to remain cool and collected, as nursing alone is about all there is in the case of a smallpox patient. The family set themselves resolutely about the duty in hand. The room was darkened and guarded against the least draft of air; the weather being excessively hot made confinement almost intolerable. Disinfectants in endless variety were provided and spread everywhere, and sulphur, as an incense, was constantly burned at the bedside, adding its stifling fumes to the already doubly-heated atmosphere.

Everything went well until the period was reached for the secondary fever to intervene. It is during the continuance of this fever that the irritation to the face becomes well nigh unbearable, and in moments of unconscious ravings the desire is strong to scratch the festering postules off, and permanent disfiguration follows. This fever began by producing unconsciousness, when visions of the wildest and most horrifying nature fired the feverish brain and produced an indiscribable nervous excitement, and seemed to last for hours at a time, when in fact it was but a few moments. This was succeeded by a few moments of consciousness and rest of about the same duration, then another return of the fever. Each recurrence was of a little longer duration than the preceding; it is when these lucid intervals become the shortest the greatest care is necessary, for when the fever becomes continuous the patient is liable to die, or at least be frightfully disfigured and a moment's inattention may be fatal. In this case loving attention broke up the fever within forty-eight hours and the same unremitting attention nursed the victim back to life again.

The most agonizing experience when this fever was at the highest, was a feeling akin to what might be produced by the head being placed in the orifice of an enormous air pump and the very muscles and bones of the body drawn out by a violent action of the pump, as severe muscular spasms were a frequent accompaniment to the natural course of the fever.

It was some weeks before a permanent recovery was certified. At the end of that probation the house and all its belongings were thoroughly fumigated, and then the victim and his family felt as though they were free once more and could go and come at will. There are a doubtless a variety of symptoms and ways of coming down with this disease; this is only given as an isolated case of personal experience to show that constant and unvarying attention will bring a patient through safely. It is not necessarily a fatal disease; its loathsome character is the most dreaded, as the unfortunate victim feels he though he were a leper, an outcast, whom friend and foe avoids, and but for some friendly attention would be allowed to die deserted and alone, and be tumbled into a hole and the place of his sepulchur forgotten.

They Never Fail.

California's scenery cannot be surpassed in the world, with her beautiful evergreen valleys and her continuous snow capped mountains. Abietene is produced on one of the mountains that intervene between the two. It has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of doubt that Abietene has great medicinal properties, both as an external and internal remedy, and we also claim we have in ABIETENE COUGH BALSAM, ABIETENE OINTMENT, FRYER'S ABIETENE and Abietene and Yerba Santa Cough Candy, remedies that never fail. See circular with each remedy. Sold by C. F. Heinzeman.

Startling but True.

WILLS POINT, Texas, December 1, 1885.

After suffering for more than three years with disease of the throat and lungs, I got so low last spring I was entirely unable to do anything, and my cough was so bad I scarcely slept any at night. My Druggist, Mr. H. F. Goodnight, sent me a trial bottle of DR BOSANKO'S COUGH AND LUNG SYRUP. I found relief, and after using six $1.00 bottles, I was entirely cured. J. M. WELDEN. Sample bottle 5 cents at C. F. Heinzeman's.

DR. FLINT'S
HEART REMEDY

Take it in Time. A man who presents an appearance of debility, whose countenance is anxious, and who is subject to spells of faintness, is liable to sudden death from heart disease. Let him take DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY before it is too late.

Apoplexy. DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY would have prevented many cases of Apoplexy, which is usually dependent upon diseases of the heart, if taken when first any unusual sensations were felt.

Blessing of Sleep. DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY, for the man or woman who finds himself or herself unable to sleep nights, is an invaluable medicine, which will not only procure the blessing of sleep, but will prevent a general breaking down of the system.

At Druggists, $1.50. Descriptive treatise with each bottle; or address

MISCELLANEOUS.

DR. BENNETT'S

SUCCESS IN CURING DISEASES, WE must in truth, say, has been most remarkable. His kind and honest dealings with his patients is especialty to be commended. We take pleasure in recommending him as a gentleman and physician. DR. BENNETT has been investigating the nature of diseases, both general and private, for over thirty years, and adopting the best methods of cure. And to-day he has no equal west of Chicago. So, ladies and gentlemen, give him an early call, and you will not be disappointed.

TESTIMONIALS.

We, the undersigned physicians, practicing in the city of San Francisco, have examined the result of the analysis made by Dr. L. Lanszweert, practical chemist, of the water of Napa Soda Springs of Napa. The water, according to this examination, possesses aperient, anti-acid and fine tonic properties, which cannot fail to be very beneficial in the treatment of chronic diseases and affording a pleasant, healthful and invigorating beverage: H. MEDICAL.

Santa Abie,
Pleasing to the Palate and Death to a Cough.

CALICO, Cal.—I have had the Catarrh for five years and could hardly talk plain; I could not breathe through my nostrils. Your California Cat-R-Cure has cleared out my head and I can talk plainer now than I have for the past five years. Your medicine is all it is represented, an absolute cure for Catarrh and cold in the head.
Yours truly, CHARLES C. OVERSHINER.

WOODLAND, Cal.—Your medicines are selling better than any other shelf goods, and give satisfaction to all purchasers. The Cat-R Cure is praised very highly by all who have tried it, and many cases have been greatly benefited by its use when all other remedies tried have proved of no benefit. Yours truly, POND & LAWSON.

FOLSOM, Cal.—I used Butte-Tine in chronic rheumatism with great benefit. Please send a supply to J. W. Haines, Genoa, Nev., and oblige yours truly, F. C. DURANT, M. D.

INSECTICIDE.

We beg to call your attention to an article we are manufacturing for the purpose of eradicating and destroying the Scale Bug, Harvest Flies, Tree Hoppers, Plant Lice, Etc.

It has been fully tested by the Agricultural Department of the State University, and pronounced a success, the endorsement of which we append. It is put up in convenient forms for use. The chemicals employed in same will not hurt the most tender bush, as has been fully demonstrated. It is put up in liquid form ready for use in barrels and 5-gallon cans, and in paste form in 2 and 5-lb cans and barrels, which must be diluted before using; therefore, we recommend the liquid form as being the best for use.

[Copy of letter received from the University of California, College of Agriculture, Berkeley, dated Dec. 4th, 1886.]

J. N. Knowles, Esq., Manager Arctic Oil Works, San Francisco:

Dear Sir—We have lately tested the Insecticide preparation of Whale Oil Soap sent by you to us, and have found it to be very effectual against the Scale infesting Orange and Bay Trees; also against the Thrips. From our previous experience with a similar composition I think it will be found fully effectual against any small Insect Pests not specially protected like some of the armored Scales, and against which any Wash short of strong lye cannot be used. Respectfully,
E. W HILGARD,
Professor State University.

We ask you to give this preparation a thorough test, feeling confident that it will do all we claim for it. It will cost but a small amount to save your fruit trees and flower plants from the deadly insect. Give it a trial and be convinced. Yours truly,

Sudden Death.

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock Edward Willard was found dead on the floor of his room, at No. 156 Olive street, where he had been rooming for several months. Deceased was partly dressed and had evidently arisen in the morning and fallen over while in the act of putting on his attire. He was between 50 and 60 years of age and was quite stout. His sister resides at San Diego, from which place he came to this city. Coroner Meredith yesterday afternoon telegraphed to his nephew, George Howard, at San Diego, and unless something about his health can be ascertained a post mortem autopsy will be held.

The Superior Court.

There was no business transacted in either Department of the Superior Court yesterday. To-day the case of Harris vs. Smith will be tried in Department One at 10 o'clock, and in Department Two the cause of Callighan vs. Phillips et al. will occupy Judge Brunson.

MEDICAL INHALATION

Combined with Constitutional Remedies.

OUR TREATMENT OF THE DISEASES of the respiratory passages consists in the employment of Medical Inhalation for its direct effects on the diseased organs; and, at the same time, adopting such hygienic measures and administering such medicines by the stomach as will most effectually purify the blood, give tone to the nervous system, and build up and strengthen the general constitution. In other words, we employ combined local and general treatment.

What is Medicaal Inhalation? Before stating briefly what Medical Inhalation is, we propose, in as few words as possible, to state clearly what it is not.

Medical Inhalation is not a cure-all, a nostrum, or a panacea. It is not a specific remedy for any disease. It is not a quack medicine, or advertised to cure any or all the ills that flesh is heir to, and intended to fill the pockets of its proprietors. It is not a talisman, whose possession insures health to its possessor without the intervention of sense or judgment. Medical Inhalation is none of these things.

Medical Inhalation is simply and solely a method of taking medicines by inhaling or breathing them into the lungs instead of swallowing them into the stomach. By Inhalation, the proper medicines are applied directly to the seat of the disease, in the nose, throat or lungs; and it is clear to every reasoning person how peculiarly applicable Inhalation is in the disorders of the organs named. If you have scalded or burned the surface of the body, or wounded any limb or member, you do not swallow the remedy intended to heal the disorganized tissue. On the contrary, you apply it directly to the seat of the wound or injury. Why, then, when suffering from catarrh of the nasal passages or throat, or afflicted with ulceration of the lungs, should you rely on medicines taken into the stomach?

Medical Inhalation not only applies the proper healing remedies to the seat of the disease, but it applies the remedy in the gaseous or vaporous form, in which form, as is well known, medicines act most powerfully. How much greater, for example, is the effect of a drachm of chloroform, when inhaled or breathed, than many times the quantity when swallowed into the stomach. The same is true of chlorine, of iodine, and of many other substances. By inhalation the medicine is not poured into the stomach and thence sent wandering through the system in search of a malady which may be mainly or entirely a local one; but by this method the proper remedy is applied directly to the diseased organ. Who, after studying the anotomy of the lungs can doubt that inflammation and ulceration of the air-tubes and air-cells, the direct application of the healing medicine by inhalation to the diseased parts, is the correct and rational method of treatment? Who, on the other hand, can be so irrational as to believe that the proper and direct way to reach the diseased surfaces of the ir-passages in this case, is by the way of the stomach? Physiology teaches us that the membrane, or skin, lining the air-passages of the nose, throat and lungs, is only a slightly modified form of the same structure as that which covers the external surface of the body. Why, then, should local treatment be proper and necessary for inflammations, congestions and ulcerations of the one and not be equally so in the case of the other?

Our experience and success in treating diseases of the nose, throat and lungs, demonstrates, beyond all question, that the true scientific treatment of these diseases is that treatment which combines the local effects of medical inhalation with the constitutional effects of systematic remedies, given in the usual way by the stomach. One or both methods must be adopted as the circumstances demand, and such remedies must be employed as the experience and judgment of the physician have proved to be proper in each particular case.

Medical Advocates of Inhalation.

Physicians who were educated twenty years ago or more, and who have not kept up with the times in the advance in medical science, have very little idea of the great importance all leading writers now give to Medical Inhalation in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. To such an extent is this true that no patient should intrust his case to any physician who is not well prepared and thoroughly equipped with everything necessary for the administering of the proper remedies by the method of inhalation.

The numerous cures effected by inhalation in cases seemingly past all help, and the uniform success attending its use in diseases of the respiratory organs, renders it obligatory on every honest physician to at once apply himself to gain a practical knowledge of the Inhalation, or, if that is not possible, he is at least bound to decline to treat such cases.

Among the most eminent physicians of the age who are fully awakened to the value of Medical Inhalation in these diseases are the following:

The celebrated Dr. Burdon-Saunderson; Dr. La Roche, of the Paris Academy of Medicine; Dr. Frederick Langheus, of Berlin; Drs. Klebs and Tommasi-Crudelli; Sir Archibald Dickson, of Edinburgh, Scotland; Dr. Eichler, Dr. Cameron, Dr. Gurdon Buck, Prof. Albert Lebert, the celebrated Dr. Hughlings Jackson the venerable Dr. Robert Dickinson, Prof. Thierfelder, Spencer Wells, Dr. Hilton Flagge, Dr. G. P. Wood, Drs. Fritsch and Hitzig, Dr Fothergill, Dr. Richard Thompson, Dr. R. S Carpenter, Drs. Anstie, Ball, Fuller, Lancereaux, Krauss, Huguenie, Heller, Orth, Corrigan, Fenwick, and many others.

With scarcely a single exception every medical authority of eminence recognizes the wonderful potency of this new method, and the coming generation of physicians are certain to be thoroughly educated therein. At present it is only a few physicians here and there who have made "Diseases of Respiration" a life study that are fitted in any way to employ the wonderful resources of Medical Inhalation in the cure of these diseases.

The Curability of Consumption.

For five years the celebrated Dr. I. H Bennet was pathologist to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh, and in his great work on "Consumption" he makes the following statement:

"During this period I made upwards of 2000 post-mortem examinations of persons dying from various diseases, and I was constantly meeting with cases in which I found cavities in the lungs from consumption, which had evidently healed up or cicatrized years before the death of the subject. Nature did not seem to have been successful in restoring the wasted lung-substance, but the cavities were dried up, the progress of the disease arrested, and the subject lived for years, with diminished lung power it is true, but otherwise in good health."

DEPARTURE.

A Rare Chance.

I INTEND TO LEAVE LOS ANGELES in the month of May, and am desirous of disposing of the following property on or before that time:

First—My residence, 405 Temple street; two-story house, 11 rooms and cellar; finely finished and built in the most substantial manner; good stable and outhouses; nicely improved lot 50 feet on Temple street, 150 feet deep; also, 47½ feet on Bunker Hill avenue by 199½ feet with 20-foot alley. Also, one of the finest carriage teams in the city; carriage, phaeton, harness and fittings complete. This is a great bargain for parties wanting a complete and a well-located house ready for occupancy.

Second—Two lots on Temple street, opposite Olive; graded; good location for business or fine residence site.

Third—Three lots in Block 2, Park tract; close to business; two lots in Block 8, Park tract, near Ostrich farm road.

Five lots in Block 10, Park tract; nice locality and near Temple-street cable road.

Ten lots in Block 11, Park tract, joining Angeleño Heights tract; a speculation.

A corner lot in Block 13, Park tract; fine view; a choice lot.

Eight lots in Block 14, Park tract; well situated and good view.

Seven lots in Block 17, Park tract, near Temple-street cable road; graded streets.

Ten lots in Block 18, Park tract; fine location; streets graded; lots level.

One lot in Block 22, Park tract, 150 feet from Temple street; a bargain.

Also, seventy-five lots in the Beaudry Water Works tract, on Alameda street, near railroad depots; excellent location for business, warehouses, etc.

Three fine, new cottages in healthful locality, magnificent view, and only two minutes' walk from business center and horse-car lines; for sale at a bargain.

One lot in Ocean View tract and two in Washington tract. These will be sold cheap.

Owing to my departure, I am offering the above at prices considerably under the market and on terms that will be easy.

For prices and conditions, call at my office, 25 Temple street, Law building.

News Notes.

The San Jose Company, beyond the Azusa, yesterday sold over $200,000 worth of property.

A reception will be tendered to Reverend Drs. Warren and Barrows to-night at the Congregational Church, corner of Third and Hill streets.

Frederick W. Gregg, formerly United States Court Commissioner at Tucson, Arizona, was yesterday admitted to practice in the Superior Court, upon presentation of a certificate from the Supreme Court of Arizona.

To-day being the Feast of the Annunciation, it will be observed in all Catholic churches, Anglican, American and Roman. At the Church of the Epiphany, East Los Angeles, there will be services at 11 A. M. and 4:30 P. M.

Mr. Ed. Germain returned from Santa Ana yesterday. He reports lots of building going on in that city and the place booming without measure. It has improved so much during two years, the date of Mr. Germain's last visit, that he hardly knew the place.

Mr. Edward Records, who owns over 500 acres of land north and east of Evergreen Cemetery, is preparing to bring water to it from El Monte. He will build a cable line to his tract and will otherwise beautify and improve this desirable place.

W. J. Kelly, whose serious illness was mentioned in the HERALD yesterday, is at his room No. 70 in the St. Elmo. Dr. McGowen is his attending physician and Geo. Kirwan, as nurse, is giving him excellent care. Owing to the weakness of the patient all visitors are excluded. Mr. Kelly's friends will be glad to hear that he is improving in strength.

As a slight indication of the boom that Azusa is now enjoying the following might be mentioned: Two weeks ago Humphreys & Riggin bought 179 acres in that favored section for $17,000. Before the abstract of title could be procured they were offered $10,000 profit on their purchase. They declined to sell, and will hold their property for another year.

Four new masts for the electric light have been ordered, and will be erected as follows: No. 1 at corner of Sutro street and New York avenue, Boyle Heights; No. 2 at junction of Mission road and Wabash avenue, East Los Angeles; No. 3 at the corner of Cincinnati and Omaha streets, on or near Temple avenue; No. 4 on the tract known as the Episcopal church lands, in the southwest part of the city.

Personal Mention.

Captain E. P. Johnson went to San Faancisco yesterday.

John Brown, Jr., Esq., of San Bernardino, is at the St. Elmo.

John L. Truslow, Western Passenger Agent of the Santa Fe, is in the city.

Hon. Wm. Ham Hall, State Engineer, is visiting the city in the interest of irrigation.

Messrs. McDonald and Woodin, two popular peace officers of Tularo, are in the city.

Mr. H. Silver, Treasurer of the A. T. and S. F. R. R. system of the Pacific coast, was in the city yesterday.

Col. R. W. Button, projector and proprietor of the dummy railway from Colton to San Bernardino, is visiting Los Angeles.

Colonel Chalmers Scott and family today passed through the city en route to San Diego, which place they will make their permanent home.

Dan Nichols, an Angeleño of old, who was born on the overland journey to California in 1849, is in the city en route to his gold mines in Sonora, where he is steadily milling the yellow dust out of the quarts with gratifying success. His father, Judge Nichols, of Colton, a tenderfoot of 75 years, who carried Dan in a blanket for many a weary mile overland, and was Mayor of the city of Los Angeles many years ago, is also in the city.

The Dentists.

The next quarterly meeting of the California Odontological Society or Association of Dentists will convene at 237 Spring street, this city, on the 5th of April. The Secretary has every reason to believe that the session will be the best attended and most interesting of any yet held by this society.

The following programme has been prepared:

Reminiscences of Replanting and Transplanting Teeth, G. Roscoe Thomas, D.D.S. (Pasadena, Cal., formerly of Detroit, Mich.). Bacteriology, W. H. Masser, M. D., D.D.S. (Santa Anita, Cal.). Crown and Bridge Work, E. L. Townsend, D.D.S. (Los Angeles, Cal.). Clinics—Contour Gold Filling, Electric Mallet, R. H. Shoemaker, D. D. S. (Pasadena, Cal., formerly Philadelphia, Pa.). Porcelain Crown with Band Attachment, E. L. Townsend, D. D. (Los Angeles). The following are the standing committees: Operative Dentistry, Drs. Millard, Masser and Wells; Prosthetic Dentistry, Drs. Townsend, Stauffer and Urmy; Pathology and Therapeutics, Drs. Dunn, Cave and Case; Histology and Microscopy, Drs. Yates and Harlan; Dental Literature and Education, Drs. Baldwin and Janes; New Appliances, Drs. White and Bird; Dental Legislation, Drs. Crawford, Townsend and French; Programme, Drs, Townsend, White and French.

The Country of "Booms."

The annual illustrated edition of the Los Angeles HERALD is just at hand. It is a forty eight page paper of handy size, filled with information about the southern part of the State and Los Angeles county in particular. Nothing could give a better idea of the wonderful growth of that favored region than the series of facts and figures that the HERALD sets forth. It is a matter of pride to the whole State that so much has been accomplished in so short a time. A fine lithograph gives a good idea of the metropolitan appearance of the chief city of Southern California. The engravings throughout are well executed and represent characteristic scenes. The paper is well printed and forms an excellent advertisement for the county and its neighbors.—[San Francisco Post.

Undelivered Telegrams.

There are undelivered telegrams held at the Western Union telegraph office, 17 North Main street, for want of proper address, for the following persons: Geo. S. Barton, J. T. Bradley, D. S. Butterbaugh, F. O. Cass, R. A. Harris, Wm. Mehertens, T. O'Shea, D. W. Peeler, M. A. Ripley, Harry D. Spencer, Buckley street; Ashley L. Wilson, Mrs. John Witherow, Dick Yarbrough.

Fruit Matters.

Los Angeles oranges have increased in price from $1 75 to $2 per box. There is a great demand for our oranges in the East, and everybody is buying them. The shippers here have orders for all they can pack for the next ten days. A carload of Eastern apples arrived yesterday and will be placed upon the market to-day. Everything in the fruit line is most encouraging.

People's Store.

To-day we are going to sell a case of the handsomest satins your eyes ever beheld. They are real beauties, are the very best cloth printed upon in America. They are 15c a yard; would be worth 25c, but for the reason we will tell you when you see them. The goods are the very finest, and it will pay you to look at them.

We have on sale to day in our dress goods department a line of 36-inch all wool Scotch Debeige Cheviot, in all new colorings and mixtures, at 48c a yard. These are new spring goods, very desirable, and worth a great deal more.

We will sell a white bedspread to-day, 11/4 in size, at 75c: is the best bargain you've seen for many a day.

A line of children's collars, something entirely new and unusually handsome, on sale to day at 75c a piece. They are worth at least $1 50; come in plain and mixed colors. We will offer you a line of summer silks to day at 35c They sell every day at 50c, but we want to rush them off.

Many a jealous and envy-smitten competitor has ridiculed our establishment because we, by the use of (qualities unknown to them), have brought from the distant East many useful articles to gladden the eyes and delight the hearts of our patrons.

The green eyed rivals view our success with dismay, and plaintively tell their few and far-between customers that we raise the prices of our Boots and Shoes in order to make both ends meet, and that they are too virtuous to do anything of the kind. The real facts are, it is because we use

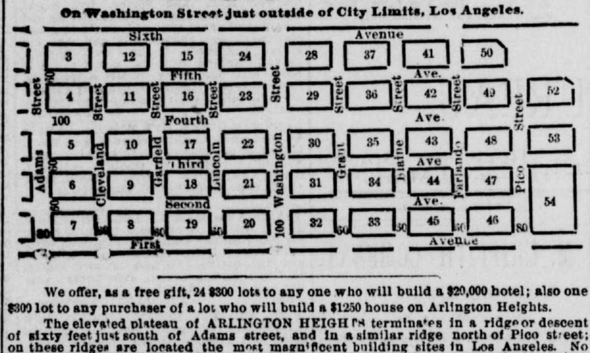
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS,
On Washington Street just outside of City Limits, Los Angeles.



We offer, as a free gift, 24 $300 lots to any one who will build a $20,000 hotel; also one $300 lot to any purchaser of a lot who will build a $1250 house on Arlington Heights.

The elevated plateau of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS terminates in a ridge or descent of sixty feet just south of Adams street, and in a similar ridge north of Pico street; on these ridges are located the most magnificent building sites in Los Angeles. No houses can ever be built high enough in front of them to obstruct that glorious view of mountain, valley and ocean; from Catalina island to San Jacinto peak, and down again over the broad acres, orchards and vineyards of fair Los Angeles valley to the blue waves of the Pacific Ocean beyond the coast of Santa Monica. Whosoever wishes for a beautiful home sheltered from the noise and bustle of a busy city, but within a twenty minutes' drive of the plaza, should select in ALINGTON HEIGHTS, a lot or 5½ acres whereon to build his house.

Our map shows a magnificent subdivision of it into 5½ acre blocks, 660x360 feet, including streets, each containing 24 lots 50x150 or 200 feet, and each surrounded on all sides by streets 60, 80 or 100 feet wide. Investors who are able to appreciate the importance of a well planned subdivision, will foretell a great future to this tract, with its miles of wide streets, intersecting each other at right angles. The elegant lawns and stately mansions of the rich will be found here within a short time, and purchasers who take advantage of our low prices and easy terms will reap a golden harvest of their investment in ARLINGTON HEIGHTS.

Two hundred lots for sale; price, $100 upwards; size, 50x150. Also, 5-acre lots at $500 per acre, upward. Free ride daily at 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. from

OFFICE OF JONES & PEYTON,
REAL ESTATE AND GENERAL COMMISSION AGENTS, ROOM 1, UP STAIRS,
75 N. SPRING STREET, LOS ANGELES, CAL.
LOS ANGELES, March 21, 1887.

Messrs. Lewis Bros.:

GENTLEMEN—With reference to the 22 39-100 acres in the San Rafael Rancho owned and subdivided by E. LEWIS, we think it to be as good land as any to be had around Garvanzo. There are excellent prospects for water at a very short distance down. The land is very good, only 4 or 4½ miles from Los Angeles. It is very prettily situated near Garvanzo, where there is a $30,000 hotel, stores, railway, schoolhouses, etc. The air and water in this neighborhood are delightfully pure, and throughout the summer there is a cool breeze. It is surrounded by Los Angeles, Pasadena, Garvanzo—all of which places are growing with wonderful rapidity. We think there can be no question of its increase in value and we have many inquiries for land in the vicinity. More than 200 acres in lots of 4 acres and upwards have been sold within the last ten months, some having been sold a second time for nearly three times its first selling price.

Faithfully yours,
JONES & PEYTON.

And Another Endorsement.

I can fully endorse all in the above statement, and the half has not been told.

JAMES BOOTH,

CATARRH!

THE TERM CATARRH IS APPLIED TO a peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts, which prevails to an alarming extent and is productive of very serious consequences.

The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times.

In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent or muco-purulent, greenish-yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often by both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their whole head was in a state of rotteness, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fetid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward, his rest is frequently disturbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the soft palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with gluish tenacity. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, which gives rise to a constant and almost irresistable desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat so as to eject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of catarrh, and proves as embarrassing to the one affected as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again, the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membrane in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are discharged by way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green tint. In some cases these incrustations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produces serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts; not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled, on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time, may destroy the bony structure of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities and then putrifies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room; and there are others in which all the secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat and feverishness in the head and nose—a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fullness, heat, irritation, soreness or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above and behind the soft palate. Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temple, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbids, and occasionally pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted and at times assumes an exceeding fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and congested, causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometime on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable, stuffy sensation in the head, and occasioning violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky or of a nasal character displaying a sort of snuffing quality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the throat, and frequent attempts to clear the parts of phlegm, producing the sound 'hem' more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fullness, or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness, for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently. Others, again, speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth or throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less and becomes weak and irritable; the appetite is capricious and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times fearful, timid, agitated and inclined to drowsiness and sleep, the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and in spite of the utmost care becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that at last a breath of wind upon the lining of the nose or throat becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent and repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse and involving a larger extent or surface than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, invading the throat, larnyx trachea and bronchial tubes, until, encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, when but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the stomach, bowels, kidneys, etc.

By the employment of proper inhalation in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the pharynx and nasal passages, for air will find its way into the most remote and intricate cavities, where it is utterly impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

OZŒNA.

Ozœna is the professional or technical name given to an advanced form of catarrh in which ulceration has eaten through the membrane lining of the nose to the cartilage of the bone. Any case of catarrh may end in ozœna, but it most frequently occurs in those who are naturally scrofulous. The discharge takes place through the nostrils or through the throat, and is generally of a yellowish or greenish yellow color, frequently tinged with blood and almost always attended by an offensive smell. In the language of Dr. Wood, of Philadelphia, "The disease is one of the most obdurate and disagreeable which the physician has to encounter. In bad cases the breath of the patient becomes so revolting as to isolate him from society and to render him an object of disgust even to himself." In some cases pieces of bone become separated and slough off, leaving deep, unhealthy ulcers, which secrete a bloody matter, and are extremely difficult to heal. After ozœna has continued some time the sense of smell usually becomes impaired and often lost. Deafness is one of its most common consequences, and results from its extension through the eustachian tubes to the internal ear. Pains in the head and over the frontal sinuses, impairing memory, and even insanity frequently spring from its extension to the brain. The greatest danger, however, because the most common, is that it will extend downward and affect the lungs. In most cases of pulmonary disease catarrh is present in some degree, and in many instances it causes a large share of the patient's discomfort.

Besides these grave consequences, all of which are liable to spring from scrofulous catarrh or ozœna, there are others which, if less dangerous, are sufficiently unpleasant. It occasions great unhappiness to thousands of both sexes, by isolating them and preventing their settlement in life. An offensive running from the nose, with foul breath, is about as great a calamity as can befall young people, for no young person should ever think of marrying while afflicted with catarrh.

Those who visit Southern California, after trying every known remedy, and failing in obtaining health through climatic changes alone, would do well to try this wonderful system, which is revolutionizing the whole medical science and effecting cures in this very city in persons given up to die.
